Property Owners Receive Annual Tax Bills from County

By JULIUS ROSENTHAL

Those annual missives of not-so-glad tidings, the annual county tax bills, were mailed to property owners throughout the county this week by the office of County Tax Collector-Treasurer R. H. Kinney.

As a result, there are probably as many varieties of understanding and/or confusion as there are taxpayers in the 549 code areas.

There are two deadlines for payment — the first is December 10, for payment of from half of the tax to the full amount; and April 10, for payment of any remaining balance.

THE BASIC COUNTY tax rate is $2.20 per $100 asessed valuation, except for the city of Richmond, where the county tax rate is $2.113 per $100 assessed valuation.

The $.087 cents difference is for county library requirements throughout the county outside the city of Richmond.

The city of Richmond's county tax rate is that much less because the city has its own library system.

IN ADDITION to the basic county tax rate, there are tax rates for various special districts. These include local school districts; fire, sanitary, mosquito, cemetery, utility, water, lighting; park, recreation and parkway; community service, junior college, storm drainage and maintenance, hospital and flood control districts, and county school service.

The number of these special districts for which you are taxed depends on the specific code area in which you are. The code areas are a detailed classification by the county assessor's office.

Canyon has only one code area — No. 6100 — so if you are a Canyon taxpayer it's relatively simple to figure out your total tax rate: $6.713.

But Lafayette has 21 code areas, Orinda has 25, Moraga has 10, Walnut Creek has 20 and Pleasant Hill has 21.

OF THE 20 Walnut Creek code areas, eight are in the city limits, and 12 are outside the city limits. And for the eight code areas within the city limits, a city property tax rate of 95 cents per $100 assessed valuation is collected for the city by the county, in addition to the county and special district tax rates.

For the first time, the county is collecting the city property tax for Walnut Creek, in addition to collecting the county taxes. Walnut Creek is one of four cities thus serviced by the county; the others are Brentwood, El Cerrito and San Pablo.

So, for instance, if you live in Code Area 906 in the city of Walnut Creek, your total tax rate is $10.141 per $100 assessed valuation — but 95 cents of that rate is for your city tax, while $9.191 is your total county and special district tax rate.

PLEASANT HILL has the distinction of having the fourth and fifth highest tax rate totals in the county. They are $10.571 for Code Area 7993, fourth place, and $10.50 for Code Area 7999, fifth place.

The three highest tax rates are in Oakgrove — $12.123, Code Area 17926; $11.736, Code Area 17925; $11.721, Code Area 17921.

Lowest total tax rate in the entire county is $4.1155, in Code Area 9301 of Selby.

HIGH AND LOW total county and special district tax rates for Central Contra Costa County communities are:

Lafayette — high, $9.32, Code Areas 7308 and 7309; low, $8.378, Code Areas 7301 and 7302.

Orinda — high, $8.97, Code Area 8317; low, $7.147, Code Areas 8301 and 8325.

Moraga — high, $8.194, Code Area 7715; low, $6.747, Code Area 7701.

Walnut Creek — high (this does not include the 95-cent city property tax rate), $9.191,, Code Area 906; low, $7.775, Code Area 10009 (outside the city limits).

Pleasant Hill — high, $10.571, Code Area 7993; low, $8.101, Code Area 17919.

Canyon — $6.713, total tax rate for Code Area 6100, the only code area in Canyon.

Transit Issues Pros-Cons Weighed

'Contra Costans Need Bi-Transit' Say Proponents

An answer to some of the major mis-understandings about the proposed two-county Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District was made today by Charles P. Howard, Jr., of 2385 Walnut Boulevard, Walnut Creek, a candidate for the position of Director-at-Large on the Transit Board Tuesday.

Howard is running for one of the two at-large positions on the Transit District's board of directors.

"In all fairness to the voters, who must decide the issue, I believe both sides of the proposal should be provided so that the voters can have a sound basis on which to reach an intelligent decision," declared Howard.

In urging a "Yes" vote on Proposition "A" — the Transit District — Howard said that "the general problem of areas to be covered and the need for mass public transportation are well known to me from residence in central Contra Costa and through travel to business in Oakland daily, as well as seven years on the Board of Directors of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, three of those years as vice-president, when this transit matter was under frequent discussion and in which the Chamber has taken an active part."

Directing his answer to many of the mis-conceptions and mis-understandings which have confused the people of Contra Costa County about the two-county transit district, Howard gave the following rebuttles to the 16-point "charges" made by a "Citizens Committee of 50" in Contra Costa County, and in essence answered the questions which were brought up by the Contra Costa board of supervisors.

Grouping them together, Howard declared that although the district has no formal tax ceiling, an attorney general's opinion holds that no tax can be imposed except for "normal needs," and that a bond election must be held to acquire any transit properties.

To the accusation that no notices were given or hearings held, Howard pointed out that evry Contra Costa county legislator joined as co-author in the state law which permits the creation of the district. He declared that the wording of the taxing and bonding provisions have never been changed.

Howard said that every city council, as well as the Contra Costa board of supervisors, received notice and copies of the measure, and that it was the city of Concord, in Contra Costa county, which was among the first cities to call for an election to create the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District.

As to the objection raised by Contra Costa County supervisors that Alameda County supervisors had called the election without asking their permission, Howard said, "There was no other choice.

General Obscurity Of Transit Plan Cited by Group

The Committee of 50 Against Formation of the Bi-County Transit District charged today that the program has as its objective "the bailing out of down town Oakland Contra Costa taxpayers helping Merchants and salvaging business property values there with in the process."

The committee is headed by Edward M. Larmer, of Walnut Creek and Attorney Dana Murdock of Richmond as Co-chairmen.

The statement continues:

"We know in Contra Costa that $468,000,000 of our assessed valuation would be placed at the mercy of an Alameda controlled board. But we can't find out how much Alameda county asessed valuation is included. When this committee made inquiry of county officials in Alameda it was told that "the assessed valuation of the transit district in our area hasn't been figured out yet."

"With this situation and many other bad features we still find an Oakland newspaper writing highly colored stories trying to prevail on our taxpayers to help the Oakland bailing out process. This paper's stories on some of the protest meetings held in Contra Costa have really been something to behold.

"It won't even publish the 16 objections Contra Costa has to the plan.

"This district has unlimited taxing power, it vests control in Alameda county, it allws a debt that could be four times what we can spend on schools, it could result in a dormant, costly district doing nothing but imposing taxes and paying salaries.

"It certainly is not in the interest of Contra Costa taxpayers and business men. We shoul vote it down and if a transit problem exists start a new study that will offer the people facts, figures, projections and estimates—something more than a pig in a poke."

"There are many things the proponents of this district cannot explain" Larmer said. "They tell the people a two thirds vote is necessary to indebtedness, but the law under which it would operate very plainly authorizes lease. Attorneys have also advised this committee that the lease-purchase program could be invoked under a judicial decision."

Murdock declared:

"There is not one solitary fact to justify Contra Costans voting for this proposal. The tremendous number of organizations urging a 'No' vote is evidence that those who have sought to sell the program have met with wholesale rejection. Our job is to get our stamp in the 'No' column Tuesday."

The Board of Directors of the Contra Costa County Tavpayers' Association has recommended against the establishment of the East Bay Transit District in Conof the tax group base their optra Costa County.

Navy Jet Plane Smashes Into Orinda Hillside

Homes in the Sleepy Hollow section of Orinda shook on their foundations Tuesday from the impact of the crash of a Navy jet fighter near Tappan Lane.

The pilot, Lt. John Greeley, 31, bailed out successfully after calling back to the Alameda Naval Air Station at 3:50 p.m. that his F9F-6 Cougar Jet was smoking dangerously in its flight over the local community.

Greeley, of Norwalk, Conn., said he had just taken off from the air station on a cross-country "test hop" to New York when he ran into trouble at 17,000 feet.

HE REPORTED the plane plummeted in a spin to 7000 feet before he used his ejection seat for escape.

While Greeley, a reserve flier, floated down in his parachute, the plane smashed into a brush-filled gully midway between Tappan Lane and Bear Creek Road on East Bay Municipal Utility District watershed land.

The pilot was picked up by Ernest S. Starkman, of 38 Iriving Lane, Orinda, a University of California professor.

Starkman took Greeley to his home to summon Navy crash crews.

THE PLANE crashed in an area filled with widely separated homes.

Although the wreckage gouged out a long path and the explosion of the jet fuel tanks sent jagged pieces of white-hot metal flying for 1000 feet, no property damage or injuries were reported.

Because the hilly area was soaked by rain, only minor fires were started. The Orinda Fire Department put them out without much trouble, but kept a standby crew on the scene through part of the night to quell possible flare-ups.

A HELICOPTER from the Alameda base flew out to take the pilot back to the station.

Back at his base, Greeley said he tried to control the fighter while it was in the 10,000 foot spin, but "at 7000 I saw there was no chance to save it so I hit the ejection button."

Greeley normally is a weekend flier at the New York Naval Air Station, which is located at the Former Floyd Bennett Airport in Brooklyn.

NAS officers said Greeley probabily will be given another plane of the same type.

Gas War Truce Called, Prices Upped to .35.9

Truce in the two-week old gasoline war was called Wednesday by the service station operators in Contra Costa County.

Gasoline prices went back to normal in most central county areas yesterday. Prices for regular gasoline are now 32.9 cents per gallon and ethyl brand gasoline has gone to 35.9.

Prices dropped as low as 24.9 for regular and 28.5 for ethyl during the past week according to operators in Lafayette, Walnut Creek, Pleasant Hill and Orinda.

Prices were reported to be back to normal in Richmond, El Cerrito, Oakland, Albany and San Pablo.

Rotary Hears Ballot Proposals Aired at Meet

Members of the Orinda Rotary have a clearer idea of the involvement of the 19 State Constitutional propositions today.

Illumination was given on the issues at a noon luncheon meeting Wednesday at Willow Inn by Luther Lincoln, incumbent assemblyman from the 15th district.

Lincoln, who is serving as speaker of the state assembly, gave an unbiased resume of the propositions, pointing out the pros and cons of each.

Program chairman for the day was Joseph Longacre.

The Rotary meeting next Wednesday will feature Miss Pat Taylor of Pacific Telephone and Telegraph, who will demonstrate the new solar battery.

She will be assisted by PT&T District Manager Howard Greenhalgh.

Frank Shirey is arranging the program.

Greeley Loses Wallet in Drop

When Lt. John Greeley was ejected from his crashing jet over Orinda Tuesday, he became separated from his wallet.

The wallet was found Wednesday by Mrs. Harland Dupuis, 30 Tappan Lane, in her backyard. It contained a $1 bill, an identification card, and nothing else.

Upon return of the billfold, Greeley thanked Mrs. Dupuis but claimed that he had a large sum of money in it and some "very important" papers.

Reporting this to The Sun, Mrs. Dupuis said the pilot requested any of his possessions, especially the papers, be turned over to the Operations Officer of the Naval Air Station in Alameda.

Death Takes Former Resident

Former Lafayette resident Mrs. Faye Huntsman Van Buren, 43, died Wednesday in the Lodi Hospital.

Mrs. Van Buren, who died after a long illness, was the daughter of Mrs. Bertha Huntsman, 950 Dewing Avenue, Lafayette, and the late C. C. Huntsman.

She was reared in this area and was graduated from Mt. Diablo High School. She was a member of the Lafayette Community Methodist Church before moving to Lodi.

Mrs. Van Buren leaves her husband, Edward, a daughter, Carolyn, 8, a son, William, 12.

Other surviving relatives are her four sisters, Mrs. Eva Lemos of Walnut Creek, Mrs. Edith Brekke of Lafayette, Mrs. Verna De Long, Oakland, and Mrs. Inez Adams, Orinda.

Her brother, Carl Huntsman, resides in Pacheco.

SUN to Give Vote Returns On Radio KECC

The Sun, in cooperation with Radio Station KECC, Pittsburg, will broadcast election results Tuesday night.

The broadcast will be handled in much the same manner as the broadcast presented for your enjoyment in June when the primary elections were held.

Latest information on the supervisorial race in District Two, as well as the balloting on propositions and national races will be provided.

Interesting personalities will be present at The Sun offices to comment on the returns.

Orinda Value Days Offer Many Bargains

Displays go up, prices go down, and shoppers go through their local stores picking up high quality merchandise at cut-rate costs.

That's what's happening for Orinda customers during "Orinda Value Days," which started yesterday and which continue through tomorrow.

Attracted by the colorful displays and window signs in Orinda stores, shoppers ar reassured that "it pays to shop at home."

VALIDITY of this motto also comes from the merchants themselves, who are celebrating the semi-annual "Value Days" by putting their finest products up for sale at the lowest possible costs.

Conducted by the Merchants Committee of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce, these gala days have been in the planning stage since last May — ever since the last "Orinda Value Days" ended.

It was then that "the little woman," the gal in each family who knows best what shopping values mean, found that she was 'way ahead of her budget, even after an Orinda shopping spree.

JOHN OGDEN, chairman of the Merchants Committee, has received word from Orinda shops that special sales are now on, offering the most desirable items at the most desirable prices.

And these are the same quality items that local stores have had in regular stock, the chairman adds.

No "special" goods have been brought in for "Value Days."

"THIS PROGRAM will benefit shoppers and merchants alike," said Ogden.

"It should go a long way toward building and improving business in Orinda."

Virus Infection Hits Central County Areas

Malady Strikes Children, Adults Alike in County

A two day virus infection hit Central Contra Costa County this past week putting normally active men, women and children in bed as weak at 'kittens'.

The county health department noted an increase of sickness throughout the county. The infection, which has been termed by many as Flu or "Devil's Grip," may be anyone of a number of viruses, said one county health official. We believe it may be a Coxsachie virus of a member of the APC family of virus infections, he continued.

WE DO KNOW that the infection is highly contagious and spreads from one member of the family to another. It has a shot period of incubation approximatley three or four days at most, said the source.

"The best cure is to go to bed and stay there. Calling a doctor is very necessary, he said.

Two deaths, belived to be caused by the virus infection, were reported to the Health Department. Both cases were infants. One in Alameda County and the other in Contra Costa.

Officials of the Mt. Dialbo Unified School District stated there was an increase in absenteeism in the district both among teachers and students. Whether or not the increase is due to the winter weather arriving or the virus infection had not been determined by school officials.

THE OUTBREAK of the virus infections was termed as "not serious" at the present time by county health officers. It is not be considered as an epidemic.

"The department is very aware of the condition and blood samples have been sent for testing to both state and federal agencies. What the results of these tests will be is not known at the present time, said one informant.

At Acalanes High School in Lafayette, additional numbers of students on the absent list were noticed.

LAS LOMAS in Walnut Creek, and Walnut Creek elementary school absenteeism was noted to be on the upswing.

One Pleasant Hill resident reported to The Sun "I just felt very weak and couldn't force myself to get up. I called a doctor and he told me to stay in bed for several days. He gave me some type of shot but I don't know what it was," he concluded.

Another resident in Orinda, when asked by The Sun what the sickness was like said, "All I can say is that it was miserable. Now my wife has it. I guess the kids will get it too."

BUSINESSES in the area reported that employees and customers seemed to be stricken with the virus infection and the main topic of conservation over the counter was: "Did you hear that---- has the flu too."

Voters of Area To Go to Polls Next Tuesday

Voters in Central Contra Costa County will join many millions of others throughout the nation in going to the polls next Tuesday and casting their ballots in the important general election.

In addition to voting for President and Vice-President of the United States, the electorate in this area will vote on candidates for United States senator, congressman, state senator, assemblyman and Second District supervisor.

They will also vote on 19 state propositions and on Proposition A, the proposal for an Alameda-Contra Costa County transit district.

Also on the ballot will be the names of candidates for directorships of the proposed two-county transit district and candidates for East Bay Municipal Utility District directorships.

POLLING PLACES will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

On Tuesday night The Sun will broadcast election results over Radio Station KECC.

(See editorial page for summary of and recommendations on the propositions.)

WHILE NATIONAL interest centers on the presidential race between President Dwight D. Eisenhower and Adlai Stevenson, local-area attention will also be concentrated on the other contests.

Mel Nielsen and Clarence R. Wallace oppose each other in the non-partisan race for county supervisor from District 2.

U. S. Senator Thomas Kuchel (R) and State Senator Richard Richards are vying for the U. S. Senate post.

CONGRESSMAN John Baldwin (R) and Dr. H. R. Quinney (D) are on the ballot in the race for Congress from the Sixth Congressional District.

State Senator George Miller Jr. (D) is opposed by Jack Pedder (R) in the contest for election to the State Senate.

From the 10th Assembly District, Assemblyman Donald Doyle (R) and Russell Koch (D) are contesting for the Assembly seat.

Women Voters' League to Have Service Booth

The Orinda Unit of the Concord League of Women Voters will have a voters' service booth at the American Trust Company in Orinda today, tomorrow and Monday, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. each day.

Non-partisan information will be available on the propositions and candidates. The information booth has been organized by Mrs. Henry Zacharias. It will be staffed by the following members of the new Orinda Unit:

Mesdames George Vurek, Robert Karplus, Louis Lazaroff, Benjamin Mallary, Ernest Chilton, A. J. King, Andrew Hartanov, H. C. Booth, M. S. Simon, Paul Ammen, Gladys Schwatka, W. L. Yager, Martin White, Joseph Dirickx, Odie Monahan, Ernest Spiegl, Frank Kleeberger and S. W. Shutt.

Last night the unit met at the home of Mrs. Chilton, 42 Haciendas Road. The topic for study and discussion was the County Health Department. This was the first of a series of discussions on departments and organization of Contra Costa County government.

Next meeting will be on November 15 at the home of Mrs. Zacharias, 257 La Espiral.

Further information about the League of Women Voters can be obtained by phoning Mrs. Simon at CL 4-5536.

Wallace Elliott Succumbs at 57

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at the Chapel of the Chimes, Oakland, for Wallace Fordham Elliott, 57, of 12 El Pulgar Road, Orinda. The rites were conducted by the Rev. Albert Lucas of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Orinda.

Elliott, an Oakland and San Francisco advertising executive, died last Saturday of a heart attack while starting out with his wife for the Stanford-USC football game. When he was stricken his wife drove him to a Lafayette doctor's office, but he was dead on arrival.

A native of Illinois, Elliott had lived in Orinda the past four and a half years. He was a University of Michigan graduate and had attended Stanford University.

Survivors include his widow, Phyllis; three daughters, Elizabeth and Leslie of Orinda and Mrs. Kathryn Dickinson of Carmel; three sons, Garrison of Orinda, Stewart of Ohio and Carter of San Francisco, and a brother, Bruce Elliott of Saratoga.

Inurnment followed the services Tuesday. Arrangements were handled by the Chapel in the Valley, Lafayette.

Mothers Club to Meet Monday

The way in which a check for $100, recently presented to the Orinda Mothers Club by The Sun will be spent will be decided next Monday at the club's November board meeting.

Set for 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Avraham Yedidia, 63 Ardilla Road, the meeting is also for the purpose of planning future club activities.

The results of a recent poll of mothers regarding the annual fund-raising project will be discussed, according to Mrs. Charles Erickson, president.

The check from The Sun represented proceeds from last year's subscription drive conducted by the newspaper in cooperation with the Mothers Club. A similar drive is planned for this month, with details soon to be announced.

The Mothers Club receives 75 cents for each new subscription entered with a mention of credit to the club.

Quarry Verdict Will Be Handed Down Wednesday

The long-standing, hotly debated controversy over the McCoske. ock quarry application will come o an end at 10:30 a.m. Wednes ay when the Board of Supervis rs hands down its decision i. Martinez.

The day of decision was set October 9, when the board announced that it would hear no more ...ments on the issue.

This was the final hearing in ...e wake of a storm of protests by ocal residents, precipitated by ...bmission of the application early this year.

ALTHOUGH it closed the hearing, the board at that time invited interested parties to submit written suggestions for possible restrictions on the quarry operation.

The invitation was accepted by many.

Among those submitting restriction suggestions was the Orinda Association.

In a letter to the supervisors Monday, the association reiterated its opposition to the operation, adding that the county should not be made to pay for road improvements to accommodate McCosker's trucks.

SPECIFICALLY, the letter stated that the quarry operator should stand the $60,000 to $85,000 expense for the improvement of Pinehurst-Canyon Road, over which the trucks would travel.

"If you as our supervisors should direct the county to do this work, it would be truly scandalous," the letter read. "The possibilities of such a situation as a precedent would be unlimited!"

This protest was also offered by the Canyon Community Club, whose letter added that the use of Pinehurst Road for the quarry operation would also jeopardize a park area and be a danger to school children in the area.

THIS LETTER also accused McCosker of going back on his word that he wouldn't use the road for the operation, but merely wanted a permit to obtain access to the freeway when it went through.

Nature groups have added to the crescendo of protests the arguments that the quarry operation would eliminate Redwood Canyon area from consideration as a park site.

These included the California Botanical Society and Nature Conservancy.

OTHER ORGANIZATIONS which have opposed the granting of the quarry permit are The Regional Parks Association, The Sierra Club, The Audubon Society, the Lost Valley Homeowners Association and the Park and Recreation Council of the county.

Should the supervisors grant the permit, they will also consider the official restrictions proposed by a committee of county officials.

These were presented at the October 9 meeting:

1. QUARRYING to be started at ...p of knoll, approximate elevation 1455 feet, and proceed downward in lifts not to exceed 20 feet.

2. All blasting to be done between 7 a.m. and 1 p.m. Monday through Friday, except holidays.

3. All rock crushing, grading, ...ockpiling, loading and waste to be confined to southwesterly side of the ridge, where such operations will not be visible from the Moraga Highway side. All access to the quarry to be from southwesterly side of ridge.

4. EXCAVATION operations to be limited to the hours of ... a.m. to 7 p.m., except holidays.

5. Trucks hauling rock out of the quarry will not be limited in size but shall not exceed legal loading.

6. Trucks operating out of the quarry shall follow Pinehurst Road and Canyon Road to the intersection of Moraga Highway. Speed limit to be 25 miles per hour.

7. Operator to be responsible for dust control, sanitary facilities and silt and erosion control dams.

San Ramon Water Survey Is Underway

The East Bay Municipal Utility District is working rapidly toward completion of annexation cost surveys in the San Ramon Valley County Water District, General Manager John W. McFarland said today.

McFarland stated that the water district south of Walnut Creek is the largest area ever proposed for annexation to the EBMUD.

The technical job of establishing cost of extending the EBMUD system to that area will be completed in from six to eight months, he said.

The EBMUD now is preparing a detailed layout of the proposed water system to serve the San Ramon Valley, according to McFarland. This data will be used to determine the water district's share of the cost of the system.

A preliminary estimate of this cost was made in 1955 by EBMUD after limited field surveys were made. The Utility District surveys now under way will determine such matters as locations of reservoirs and transmission mains in order to arrive at conclusive cost estimates.

McFarland's progress report was given on request by Kenneth Cameron, president of the San Ramon Valley County Water District. Cameron called for early completion of the EBMUD studies.

Bill, Ralph's Char Broiler Popular Spot

Bill and Ralph's Char Broiler, located in Clark's Market at Rheem Center, is a popular eating-spot at the Center.

Ralph was formerly with Hugh's Donut Shop in Berkeley, and also with Larry's Spudnut Shop.

Final Classroom Meetings Coming

The two last room meetings in the Orinda Mothers Club series of 73 will be held next week at the Sleepy Hollow School.

Classroom aims and methods have been explained by each of the teachers in Orinda's five schools at previous meetings.

Next week's meetings, to be held in the Sleepy Hollow School library are the following:

Monday, 7:45 p.m.—Miss Elia's fourth grade.

Wednesday, 7:45 p.m.—Mrs. Holleman's third grade.

Halloween Featured At Birthday Parties

Two black and orange birthday parties were celebrated in Orinda last week.

Following this Halloween theme was a party given by Susan Miners of 17 Broadview Terrace to celebrate her 11th birthday.

Helping her celebrate with jack-o-lantern cup-cakes and orange ice cream were:

Dorothy Thomas, Linda Farris, Linda Denise Hill, Katy and Bonny Minkler, Anne Siedel, Joyce Finley, Martha Grigsby and Cecilie Spencer. Susan's brother, Bobby, 9, was also a guest.

Celebrating in a similar vein were the guests of Billy Gravelle of Meadow Views Road, who was four years old.

Enjoying Halloween decorations while wearing masks were Marilyn Mortarotti, Mapsy Gardner, Terry Ann With, Leah Watson, Bruce Carter, Mark Gilardy, Greg Louis, Kim Hagstrom and Jennifer Nielsen of Oakland.

Also on hand were Billy's brothers, Gordon, 7, and Bruce, 15 months.

Business Convention Is Vacation Excuse

Taking their first vacation alone in 16 years recently were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cayting, 28 Scenic Drive. The occasion was the Builders' Exchange Convention in Long Beach, where Cayting represented Rhodes and Jamieson Building Company.

Heaven to 7' Will Open Soon In Rheem Center

"Heaven to Seven" is the name of the new children's wear store which will open at Rheem Center in late November. Owner is Mrs. Thelma Patterson, who lives at 128 Camino Sobrante, Orinda, and who owns the Country Hairdresser Shop, 99 Orinda Highway, Orinda.

"Heaven to Seven" will be at 124 Park Street, between Edy's and Moraga Bootery. Manager will be Mrs. Dorothy Morrissey, now with the children's department at the Joseph Magnin store in Walnut Creek.

Mrs. Morrissey formerly operated the "Heaven to Seven" shop on Boulevard Way, Walnut Creek, way for the freeway. She retains which had to be closed to make an interest in a children's shop in Palm Springs.

In addition to operating the new "Heaven to Seven" store in Rheem Center, Mrs. Patterson will continue to run the Country Hairdresser, which she opened the beginning of September. She was formerly the manager of Floyd's Salon in Denver.

Public Invited to New Fire Station

Orinda residents have been invited to inspect the new Orinda Fire Station No. 3, which was recently constructed at the corner of Honey Hill Road and Via Las Cruces.

The invitation to view the $29,584 structure was issued by the Orinda Fire Board.

Storm Cuts Off Orinda Power

The season's first real storm in Orinda caused lights to go off and power to fail Tuesday morning in two sections of the community.

The trouble, which affected the Charles Hill and Happy Valley Road areas, was attributed to trees falling against power lines leading from Pacific Gas and Eletric Company's Los Aromas substation.

According to John Black, PG&E manager for this area, the "storm blew trees into the wires, forcing them together and causing the short."

A PG&E spokesman said the power first went off at 4:15 a.m. It was restored at 5:42 a.m., but a few minutes later went off again.

Service was finally restored in the area at 8:15 a.m.

Vandals Destroy Flasher Lights

A dozen "flasher lights," used to mark dangerous construction areas along roads, were destroyed by vandalism last week, sheriff's deputies have reported.

The electronic lights are valued at $26 each. Their destruction took place along Moraga Boulevard.

The culprit apparently drove along the edge of the ditch, knocking down the barricades on which the lights were placed.

The vandal was not satisfied with merely breaking the glass lenses, but demolished the whole unit in each case.

Around Europe in 40 Days Is Orinda Lady's Record

By FRANCES NEWMAN

"To Rome by Hand and Hula, or Orinda to Montreal via Vienna" might be a fitting title for Mrs. Alice Rasmussen's diary of recent weeks.

While husband Lloyd and daughter Roni, 10, tended the family pets and gophers at their home on Charles Hill Road, Orinda, Alice sailed away for a quick look at eight European countries in 40 days.

MRS. RASMUSSEN'S fast-paced journey was shared by her mother, Mrs. Betsy Howson, of Berkeley, whose deft and lively use of the hand-alphabet added spirit to the trip, and attracted new friends wherever they went.

Mrs. Howson, a graduate of the California School for The Deaf, where her late husband was a teacher, is an expert in several foreign versions of sign language as well as the American one.

She eagerly took part in all her daughter's European adventures, whether swinging to the top of a Swiss Alp on a cable or slithering into the Blue Grotto of Capri flat on her back.

One of the high points for both was an audience with the Pope at his summer palace on the outskirts of Rome.

ALICE'S EXPERT hula was a much appreciated novelty on more than one occasion. But the languid Hawaiian setting was not always at hand.

On the voyage over it was done with an Italian accent on a vigorously pitching deck as the uninitiated Italian orchestra struggled with the most Hawaiian song they knew — "I Can't Give You Anything But Love!"

In Bavaria, the hula gave way to a clattering polka in a Grimm's fairy tale setting when Alice was asked to join with a group of Bavarian entertainers.

But her fellow performers were so pleased with Alice's impromptu stompings that they presented her with a hand-painted pottery dish.

LANGUAGE WAS not usually a problem, fortunately, according to Alice, who professes to have a microscopic foreign vocabulary.

A few more of the basics, she thinks, might have saved her in a Florence cocktail lounge, where asking for a martini promptly brought her a key to the ladies' room.

A few more French phrases might also have added even more zest to the Folies Bergere, which she and her mother took in while their more sedate friends were being steeped in grand opera.

But Alice is dubious whether a command of the language would have made the Rhineland any more magnificent, the Venice gondolas more romantic, the Viennese waltz less dizzying, or the continental coffee less like ether!

DODGING MOTOR scooters, taxis and oxcarts, the two women photographed their way through a large part of the continent.

After tantalizing glimpses of England, Holland, Belgium, Germany, Autria, Italy, Switzerland, and France, they re-loaded their camera for the last time and headed home.

The final stretch of her journey is now being re-lived by Mrs. Rasmussen with special meaning as her daughter Roni quizzes her on every detail.

Roni is fast becoming an authority on Quebec and Montreal and the St. Lawrence River, up which her mother sailed toward home. Roni is busily engrossed at school in the study of Canada along with her sixth-grade classmates.

Orindan Heads State Group For Eisenhower

Donn Sigerson of 40 Valley Drive, Orinda, is state chairman of Small Businessmen for Eisenhower. He is currently touring the state.

Sigerson, who heads a manufacturing firm in Oakland, said this week: "One purpose of the Small Businessmen for Ike organization is to debunk the opposition's claim that the Eisenhower Administration exists solely for the benefit of big business."

He added that small businessmen are being asked to sign a scroll in the name of their firm pledging "support to President Eisenhower on election day and the days that follow."

Suburbia Scribblings

By MARIE MONAHAN

Anyone for a pumpkin pie?

HALLOWE'EN WAS QUITE A PRODUCTION, wasn't it? If you have three, four, five or six little spooks in your household, you've had it! So have they! You in the costume department, they in the candy concession.

By now, the Trick or Treat trade is down to its last lollipop of the loot and you've soundly admonished your goblins for dipping into their bountiful bag before they've even had their morning oatmeal!

Cheer up! Like easter eggs and candy canes, the sweet stuff will soon disappear. But not before you're out of your mind at the sight of tootsieroll wrappers stuffed into the sofa, candy corn crumbs in the blankets, squashed jellybeans stuck to the rugs.

Not to mention the pumpkins! Which were, by the way, at a premium as early as Sunday night. Four sad lone longfaced ones left in Lucky's . . . The stores ran out last year too, but don't chance re-ordering such a large lot, inasmuch as the modern lady makes her pies from canned pumpkin and limits the squash variety to the making of jack-o'lanterns.

One Del Rey mother put on the weirdest mask she could find and accompanied the kids on the neighborhood rounds. Nobody EVEN recognized her and she really felt bewitched!

Another mother brought a children's record of spooky hallowe'en music and is beginning to feel like a Chas. Addams character . . . Her progeny play the eerie strains over and over and over again.

There were LOADS of parties, but the most novel of all, in the modern mood was "The Search for Bridey Murphy" masquerade and regressive dinner party co-hosted by Margaret Kozak and Betty Moore.

A Paul Bunyan and a Tugboat Annie

Clever invitations in the form of the famed book induced guests to come as "out of this world" spirits . . . The result was more funny than eerie . . . Doris and Bud Leiber, a pair of rabbits, Alouise and David Brain as a caveman couple, Arline and Emile Pierre as Madame Butterfly and Lt. Pinkerton, and deer, complete w/antlers, were Clyde and Irene MacDonald.

George Kozak made a powerful Paul Bunyan w/Margaret gooped in bluepaint as Babe, the Blue Ox. The Harold Staffs, recooping an illness, dropped in but briefly, long enough for laughs at their icebags and thermometers, to illustrate "The cause and effect" . . . The junior Carl Moores made it even more hilarious w/Carl's transformation into "Bridey herself" and Betty burlesqueing a famous ad.

MORE COSTUMES AT THE CLIPPER CLUB'S nautical party Friday nite . . . Florence Anderson as Tugboat Annie . . . Sideburns, whiskers and wig for an old seadog, Ted Howes. Completely incognito, except for her laugh, Lucy Hupp as a salty old tar, her spouse Jim wrapped in a southseas sarong.

Going as gobs were Dorothy Anderson, Virginia Howes, Stan Hudd, Dorothy Hall . . . Evangeline Winkler, a sailor's ghost, and the Clipper's Skipper Rudy Monosmith, an old Sea Captain. Who says Hallowe'en is just for the kids!

A WEEK AGO THURSDAY, some four hundred women took a global trot without stepping out of Orinda . . . Through atmospheric travel posters, commentary by TWA hostess Mary Gordon, and clothes for every place and occasion from Hill 'n Dale, furs by David Benioff, guests at the Santa Maria Women's Club Fashion Show took a "Dreamer's Holiday" along w/Evie Parker, who in a fetching lounge costume languished on a chaise onstage but not having the show herself, did her dreaming w/her eyes wide open.

Eyes right!

THE GUARDS AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE couldn't help turning their heads when Harriet Thurlow did her sightseeing in a camelhair box jacket suit, looking very tall, trim and tailored . . . Very much the London Look too, Agnes Stoffel, in a David Crystal striped wool . . . A widow-peaked white felt w/an upward-swept crown completed the fire engine costume modeled by Dorothy Reilly . . . Mrs. John J. Reilly Sr. nearby w/her daughter Roni Kentfield.

Perfect for dinner at the famed Tour D'Argent in Paris, Maurine Huddacheck wearing a red brocade silk w/floating chiffon panels . . . Lunch at Longchamps for Pat White also in a vivid red red ensemble, a red satin-trimmed gray velous . . . In the audience, Pat Connally, a white mink collar on her black and white tweed . . . Betsy Kilburn, Helene Robinson . . . Stolled tweed and a black beaver hat for Caroline Read.

FOR SIGHTSEEING IN ROME, Virginia Block in watermelon wool . . . Applauding nearby, Shirley Fager, a mustard beaver to match her smart tweed suit sitting w/Marian Fizet . . . Evelyn Roberts w/Jill Dewey . . . Salt and pepper tweed for Pat Windel there w/Fran Dirickx, Virginia Stafford in a saucy pink satin toque, and Elaine Swigert, new on Tarry Lane since May.

FOR NIGHTLIFE ON THE RIVIERA, Helen Nattress's turquoise satin sheath a showstopper, worn w/zircon jewelry and peekaboo pumps . . . A "My Fair Lady" mosspink creation under a blue mink stole for Stella Epperson, Barbara Smith promenading a white mink stole over black velvet. Jen Bonnington chatting w/Eda Lippi . . . Gay Miller and Helen Guerin, the latter claiming a prize . . . Tasca Fazio in a large group, lucky Helena North holding the lucky ticket for the Vegas trip.

SOMETHING TO WEAR IN EIRE . . . A kelly green satin sheath, rhinestone-trimmed and matching pumps on Ruth Dobson, a green casual sweater and skirt on Pat White for shamrock-hunting . . . Lois Heywood talking to Stella Boyle, Pat Loughman in navy blue.

FOR MOTORING THE GERMAN COUNTRYSIDE, a red-brown hooded wool plaid, pretty on young Pat Siefker . . . Something for the Swiss Alps, Miss Judy Meyer in a hooded bulky-knit beige sweater topping green cord trousers . . . For chalet parties, a classic black and white check, full-skirted, on blonde Helen Moore who later donned her own frock of white lace bustled w/a pink bow to help as a tea hostess.

A Riviera coutouriere right here

The tea table, in harvest-time hues, w/gold mums, gilded leaves, fruit and candles, beautifully decorated by Ethel Spittler, De Ette Laher . . . Peggy O'Brien, Leslie Thor, Evelyn Gleason, Francis Collins among those helping w/the serving of tea and sandwiches, tasty bite size creampuffs.

IN THE CROWD, tea cups clattering, Isabell Coxeter and Jean Meyer a duo . . . Athena Mason, who also modeled lovely things, introducing her sister-in-law Jean Ganiatz in a black velvet picture hat, who was over from Hidden Valley and telling of plans for her new abode up on Camino Encinas. Nanette McEligot w/her mother Madame Marion, who until her arrival here last Christmas, had quite a coutouriere career herself on the French Riviera, and continues to whip up original copies for her friends here.

Notably absent were Sev Schnugg and Pat Hartsough, both at home w/brand new infants . . . Jean Catterton was missing, too, busy readying for a fourth family addition due for arrival soon.

The Perc Browns gathered friends around a high wedding cake by Blum's to honor the newly-wedded George Hauerkens at a reception recently on their return from the southland . . . Mrs. Hauerken is the former Jay Duthie of Burlingame.

The Jess Longs and the Dana Leavitts, down to Stanford for the game last Saturday, were entertained at a post-game party afterwards at the Palo Alto home of the former Stanford and Notre Dame coach, Marchie Schwartz.

A frosty-morning Coffee Pary was hosted by the Cecil Cantrills of Sleepy Hollow last Saturday for General and Mrs. Clarence Wallace, w/half a hundred guests gathered for the mid-morning meeting. The Wayne Millers are planning a Sunday afternoon conclave at their Highland Court home in honor of the same.

Local 20-30's Are Official Hosts at Area Convention

The Walnut Creek 20-30 Club will be host to 39 central California 20-30 clubs at the Whicomb Hotel in San Francisco, tomorrow and Sunday during the first Area 2 Convention.

Area Director John Shea and local club President Jerry Mullin have been planning a program, including a cocktail party and dinner dance tomorrow night in the Crystal Room of the Whitcomb and a men's breakfast for business purposes on Sunday morning.

Speaker at the breakfast will be Dr. Sigmund Ketterer from the University of California Medical Center, currently conducting research under a fellowship granted by the 20-30 International Rheumatic Fever Foundation.

On the same morning the wives of members and guests will be entertained by the Walnut Creek 20-30 wives with a fashion show.

Walnut Creek also arranged a special attraction for out-of-town guests by securing a large block of tickets for the San Francisco 49er-Detroit Lions professional football game on Sunday afternoon.

The convention committee has Club President Jerry Mullin; Finance Committee, Bill Carlson; Dance Chairman, Pierre Taylor; Registration Committee, Cliff Weyrick and Ben Martinez; Social Activities, Pat Byron.

Cocktail Party, Lloyd Ricketts and Tom Klause; Men's Breakfast, Dave Gerlach and Jack Taylor; Dinner, Harris Hudson and Les Bougard; Women's Breakfast, Mrs. Ina Gerlach.

Local Shell Scientists Publish 'Oil' Paper

Local Shell Development Company scientists published a paper recently.

Section IV, Petrochemical Products, of the recently published 10 volume publication, "Proceedings of the Fourth World Petroleum Congress," contains a paper titled "Chemicals from Petroleum" which G. W. Hearne, of Lafayette, presented to the Congress in Rome last year.

Among the co-authors of the paper, in addition to Hearne, is S. A. Ballard of Orinda.

Pack 32

Den 11 of Orinda's Pack 32 fought through to a 25-0 win over Den 9 in their first meet of the season recently at the Sleepy Hollow School.

In the opening play quarterback Steve Thaman intercepted a pass and raced for the first touchdown of the day for Den 11. The conversion was made by halfback Jay Ainsworth on a fake handoff and a bootleg around right end.

Den 11 scored again in the second quarter after a long pass from Thaman to end Ted Taylor for the touchdown.

Third quarter saw another touchdown for Den 11 when Ainsworth pushed his way through a fighting opposition line.

Den 9 worked hard on defense but failed to stop Thaman from getting through on a 10 yard run in the fourth quarter for the final touchdown of the contest. Refereeing the match were Steve Abbott and Randy Thaman.

Christian Science

Man's real selfhood as the spiritual image and likeness of God, not subject to sin and sickness, will be emphasized at services Sunday in Churches of Christ, Scientist, at 22 Orinda Highway, Orinda, and 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek.

Scriptural readings in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Adam and Fallen Man" will include the following (Genesis 1:27): "So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them,"

The unchanging perfection of God's man will be brought out in passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, including the following (476:28-32):

"When speaking of God's children, not the children of men, Jesus said, 'The kingdom of God is within you:' that is, Truth and Love reign in the real man, showing that man in God's image is unfallen and eternal."

New Shadelands School Opens In Formal Rites

Mt. Diablo Unified School District's new $250,000 Shadelands School for cerebral palseyed children was dedicated Tuesday night in ceremonies at the Monte Gardens Multi-Use Room, adjacent to the Shadelands School.

Tenth District Assemblyman Donald D. Doyle was featured speaker at the dedication, following parents and Mr. Diablo district school officials. Doyle, who heads the State Assembly Interim Committee on Education, discussed legislative matters affecting education for handicapped and cerebral palseyed children.

Also speaking was Shadelands principal, Gem Davis, vice-principal Ralph Lopez, District Superintendent Dr. James Dent, and Mrs. Doris Loveridge.

Davis opened the program with a welcoming speech, and Lopez introduced school staff personnel. D. Dent discussed district-wide problems, and Mrs. Loveridge presented the school to parents and pupils.

The new structure, begun in October, 1955, will have an opening enrollment of approximately 48 pupils. Building includes four classrooms and two large therapy rooms, including special equipment for cerebral palseyed children.

Funds for onstruction were shared by the District through school bonds and the state under the State Aid Building Program with a contribution from the County School Office.

A tribute to Doyle's efforts in the state legislature on behalf of education of handicapped children was paid by Dr. Dent, who saluted the assemblyman "for his great role in getting facilities for the school."

At state level, Doyle has actiavted a subcommittee of the Assembly Education committee specifically to investigate the problems of educating the handicapped. Hearings have been held on the subject, and new legislation is being framed for introduction before the legislature at next January's general session.

Xmas Decoration Art to Highlight Guild Luncheon

Christmas decorations will be the program of the General Guild luncheon at the Orinda Community Church on Tuesday, November 13.

Helen Gilmore will show what can be done with scraps on hand and with pin-money material from the five-and-dime.

Mrs. Clarence Crawford will entertain with vocal selections.

Luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m. in Fellowship Hall.

Tickets are 50 cents and child-care is 50 cents for the afternoon at the nursery school area.

Mexico City 'Fiesta' Taken by Orindans

A Mexican "fiesta" is currently being enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gutsch as they vacation in Mexico City, Mexico.

The couple is staying at the famous Hotel Bamer.

Safe at Elks Club Peeled Open for $700

The new safe at the Walnut Creek Elks Lodge yielded $700 last Friday night or early the next morning when "person or persons unkown" peeled it open with crowbars, hammers, mallets and chisels.

H. C. Cherrington reported the loss the next morning, noting that nothing else had been touched.

The thugs jimmied a door on the south side, went to the second floor, and forced open the business office door, where the safe was located.

Police officers said that the job was a big one, and required a long time. Footprints on the floor and smudges on the safe were found.

They added that it looked like an "expert" job.

Makahiki Bazaar Is This Weekend

St. Paul's Episcopal Church will be the scene of the annual Makahiki Bazaar today and tomorrow.

General Chairmen Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Alexander said that booths in the parish hall and church school will have handmade doll clothes, plants, baked goods and ceramics.

Luncheon will be from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., today. Dinner will be served at 5:30 p.m. tomorrow. Dinner chairman is George Gessling.

State's Side of Freeway Negotiations Championed

A defense of State Division of Highways policy in negotiating for land in the path of future freeways was made by Frank Balfour, chief right of way agent this week, in a letter to The Sun.

His comments were related to a recent Sun editorial, and also reported bad feeling by some landowners who sold to the state, clearing a path for the Walnut Creek bypass.

Right-of-way acquisitions, mingled with a few condemnation actions, have been progressing for months. The freeway construction will cost $7.5 millions.

BALFOUR READILY admitted that often landowenrs are given higher awards for their property by a jury than the state offered, but added that in many cases, the state rejected offers higher than the jury's final figure.

That the state strives for amicable agreement, and a determination of the "fair market value" he suggested with figures indicating that only 112 eminent domain proceedings were necessary in acquiring 8785 parcels during 1954-55.

He said, " . . . one purpose that our valuation section has in mind in preparing appraisals is to reach the fair market value . . ."

"Our valuation staff is separate and apart from our negotiating staff.

"I can assure you that it is our policy in the negotiating function to offer every affected property owner the fair market value as disclosed by our appraisal report.

"We do not operate on a 'horse-trader' basis and under no circumstances do we permit our negotiators to attempt to purchase property at the cheapest possible price.

"WE ARE FULLY conscious of the fact that we are public employees, and that we not only represent all of the taxpayers of the State of California but also the individual property owner witht whom we are negotiating

"Unfortunately, in the case of eminent domain proceedings, juries are generally inclined to be sympathetic toward the individual affected property owner as against the State of California.

"Your statement is very true that often the award in a condemnation action is considerably above the offer of settlement submitted by the Division of Highways.

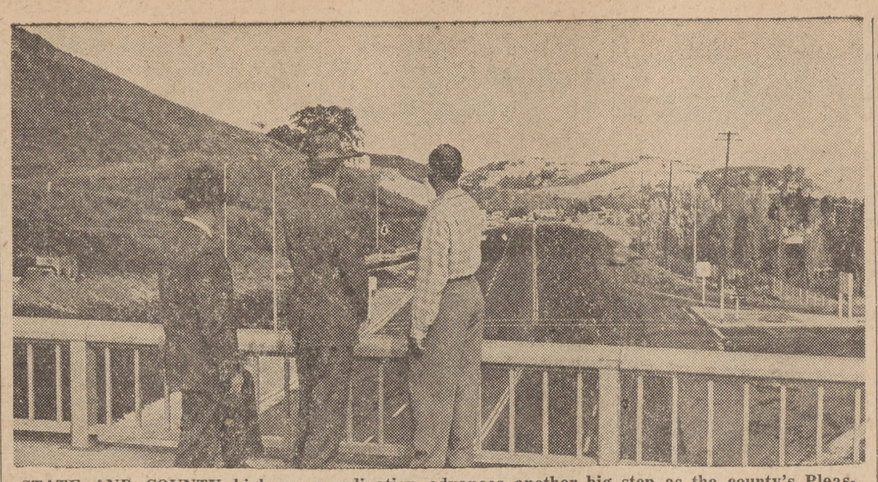
"As a matter of fact, we readily conceded that often times the independent appraisers employed by us to appear as expert witnesses on behalf of the State in a trial of eminent domain will submit appraisal reports to us indicating a higher market value than that shown by our own staff.

"HOWEVER, IN A situation of this kind, it is our policy to always offer an amount equal to the highest tesimony that will be submitted by the State in the trial of the case in advance of the time the proceeding actually goes to trial

"On the other hand, I can assure you that in many cases, the affected property owner secured a lesser award from the jury than the amount we originally offered in settlement.

"I am sure you will agree with me that so long as there are two human beings on the face of the earth there can always be differences of opinion

"And we find often that even two of the most capable and best trained members of the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers, one appraising for a public body and one appraising for an affected property owner, can give substantial differences of opinion."



STATE AND COUNTY highway coordination advances another big step as the county's Pleasant Hill Road project is scheduled for dedication today and as the state's Pleasant Hill Road Interchange nears completion. With their backs to the camera so that, from the vantage-point of the new bridge on Mt. Diablo Boulevard, they can obtain a better view of Pleasant Hill Road stretching to the north, are, left to right, George Walker, president of the Lafayette Improvement Association; Clarence R. Wallace, member of the Contra Costa Safety Council, and Elliot J. Hartman, chairman of the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation. —Sun photo by Mattson

Robert Williams Will Wed After Pacific Service

Robert Lloyd Williams, a 1955 graduate of Las Lomas High School will be married next March in Rialto, after his tour of overseas duty with the U.S. Navy.

Williams, who enlisted when he finished school, has been serving on USS Bonhomme Richard, a carrier in the far eastern theater. His ship is in Japan at present, and will go to Hong Kong.

His bride will be Janice Louise Purdie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Purdie of Rialto.

She graduated from high school in 1955, and is employed as a bookkeeper for a bank in San Bernardino.

Parents of the prospective groom are Mr. and Mrs. Stanley N. Williams of 150 Greenway Drive, Walnut Creek.

On his discharge from the Navy next July, Mr. Williams will begin next July, Mr. Williams will begin an aeronauical engineering course in the southern California area.

Crusaders Are 'Hopeful' That Goal Will Be Met

United Crusaders are "hopeful" that Diablo Valley will attain its $49,850 goal. They will continue solicitations throughout this month, Chairman Ted Barcelon of Lafayette, said today.

At this time, about 55 per cent of the returns have been audited, and campaigners wish to release figures when they are more complete, he added.

"The returns are coming in faster than they did list year, when only 22 per cent of the returns had been tabulated at this time.

"All the divisions are still working, including the commerce and industry and residential people. Board directors of the Contra Costa YMCA and Mt. Diablo Boy Scouts are helping make contacts," said Barcelon.

The over-all goal in the Bay Area is $11,017,000.

The Diablo Valley area includes Walnut Creek, Lafayette, Orinda, Pleasant Hill, Alamo, Danville, and San Ramon.

"It will be interesting to see how the Contra Costa race with Alameda County comes out, too," Barcelon said.

Commerce and industry chairman is Fred Krackel, aided by Charles Gable. Residential chairman is Mrs. John Glover of Pleasant Hill.

High Places Oppose Text Study--Doyle

Ranking educators in California do not want the State Legislature to investigate the methods now used in selecting textbooks for schools, Assemblyman Donald Doyle said this week, in answer to statements by Associate Superintendent of Public Instruction Dr. Jay Conner.

Conner recently circulated a 13 page letter, he said, which criticizes the committee's recommendation for changing the textbook procurement system.

BY THIS, Doyle added, Conner has become a "lobbyist and defender of the status quo."

His statement to the California Education Study Council in San Diego indicated that opposition to the textbook study has increased his committee's interest in it.

" . . . it was this seeming great reluctance on the part of a few top officials to have us take even a cursory look into the textbook situation which ultimately made us curious enough to spend a disproportionate amount of time and study on the elementary textbook problem.

"AND FAILING to stop the study from beginning and continuing, the spokesmen at every opportunity have attempted to discredit its validity and reliability."

Doyle added that his committee talked to about 5000 school board members. The reports are based on the views of educators and non educators.

Help Shipped to Orphans By Benevolent Group

A small, ragged Korean orphan, listlessly wandering the streets in search of food, has just about given up hope of being helped out of his plight . . . but this help is on the way.

Very shortly this tot and thousands of his homeless little companions of the street will be eating nourishing food and wearing warm clothing.

THIS HELP, as far as these children are concerned, will come from that strange, wealthy land across the sea—America.

More specifically, it will be a multitude of benevolent Americans, contributing to the recently reorganized World Aid, Incorporated, who will provide this new lease of life for these strife-torn waifs.

The cry for desparately needed essentials for these children has been heard in this community, and local residents are responding.

WORLD AID, Incorporated, which is expanding its facilities as it is reorganized from the former group, War Orphans' Association, is being headed by a Lafayette resident.

Ernest W. Paulson, 1010 Timothy Lane, is executive director of World Aid.

As this winter in Korea, according to Paulson, will be particularly trying, local people with extra warm clothing of any type are asked to donate these goods.

"WARM CLOTHING to fit children up to 18 years of age is the immediate need," Paulson said, as the cold weather is already beginning."

The director explained that shipments generally require about six weeks to be processed and delivered, "so urgency is of special concern."

Clothing for Korean children, and for people in need throughout the world, can be left at Jim Cunningham's Tire Shop, 3534 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette.

DONORS ARE ASKED to leave the clothing in burlap sacks or cartons.

Sacks for this purpose are being furnished to World Aid, Incorporated, by the Safeway Store in Lafayette.

Paulson claims that contributions to the organization should be addressed to:

Letters to The Editor

OPPOSES NO. 10

Dear Editor:

I am opposting ballot Proposition No. 10 as a result of first-hand experience as a member of the California State Personnel Board during the administration of three governors.

No. 10 authorizes "the employment of private architects and engineers on a contract basis for the performance of work which the obtainable staff of a state agency is unable to perform within the time the public interest requires the work to be done."

WHY AN AMENDMENT to our State Constitution when the State Personnel Board has the authority to authorize private contracts for state services? During a recent five-year period over $135 million in building construction was let out to private architects for designing.

The real reason back of No. 10 is that the Personnel Board is a politically independent commission whose members serve 10-year terms.

If No. 10 passes, the authority to hand out private contracts can be transferred from the board to individuals politically amenable and vulnerable to pressures from private interests. No. 10 could freeze potential political scandals into our State Constitution.

NO. 10 should be voted down overwhelmingly as a warning to all private interests whose selfish motives could well undermine our outstanding state "personnel merit system." No. 10 is an entering wedge.

Our "merit system" has been a source of satisfaction and pride to our citizens ever since they voted it in by over 3 to 1 majority 22 years ago. It is the envy of other states. Why tamper with it? Vote No on 10.

Letters to The Editor

FAVORS NO. 4

Dear Editor:

I was both shocked and surprised to read in your column in the October 19 Sun that you were opposed to the passage of Proposition 4—the Oil and Gas Conservation Intiative.

We in the oil industry believe that such a conservation measure is necessary and desirable in order to effect greater recovery of a wasting natural resource.

UNFORTUNATELY, oil and gas are not replaceable as are some of our other resources, such as timber, fish and game and water power. If oil and gas are wasted either in the ground or above the ground, they are irretrievably lost. This measure, if passed, may result in tremendous increases in the recoverable reserves of oil in the State of California . . .

You reditorial comment raised some question about the fact that the measure is presented as an initative to the voter rather than being a legislative act. The legislative history of conservation measures is briefly as follows:

In 1931 the Legislature passed the so-called Sharkey Bill, which was an oil and gas control measure in that it allowed for proration of production to meet market demand. This measure was killed by a referendum vote of the people.

SIMILARLY, in 1939 the Legislature passed the Atkinson Bill, which likewise provided for proration to meet market demand. This bill was also killed by referendum.

In presenting the current initiative proposal to the people, we believe that the objectionable feature—that is, control of production — has been eliminated and that the measure will prove to be one that they will favor.

Another reason for following the initiative procedure, which is a democratic process reserved by the people for themselves, is that Assemblyman Joseph C. Shell, vice-chairman of the Standing Committee on Manufacturing, Oil, and Mining Industry, has publicly stated that this bill would not get out of committee if it was submitted to them

IN ORDER to get the bill on to the floor of the Assembly, it would have to pass through this committee.

As a matter of background, Assemblyman Shell is the son-in-law of the chief consul of the Superior Oil Company, an avowed opponent of this and other conservation measures.

I am enclosing some literature that may be helpful to you in further analyzing this measure. I sincerely hope that you will join with us and recommend the vote "Yes" on Proposition 4, thus helping us to remove California from the dubious distinction of being the only major oil and gas producing state without an adequate conservation law.

J. E. LINDSAY

AN 'AYE' FOR 10

Dear Editor:

At a recent "Town Hall" meeting sponsored by the Orinda Association it was interesting to note the arguments presented against Proposition 10 and to realize that, without exception, each of these arguments, when viewed with the background facts, lost its validity.

The point was made that there is no need for Prosposition 10 because:

1. There is no backlog of public work . . .

Doubletalk at its worst! Over three-quarters of a billion dollars' worth of "paid for" public works projects . . . . have not advanced into the drawing board stage.

2. Work is being contracted-out to private architects and engineers at present . . .

A MINUTE FRACTION of the state construction program is being let out at present. What is being done is done illegally, placing the private architect or engineer in such a position that should the state . . . refuse to pay the entire contract price or any part therof or should any taxpayer bring suit to prevent payment . . . there would be little recourse for the architect or engineer to recover even his investment in the project.

It was stated that Proposition 10 would bring back the spoils system by placing in the hands of the director of public works and the director of finance, appointees of the governor, the determination of when employment of private engineers and architects is necessary.

It was not stated that under the present system the determination of the need for hiring private firms rests with the State Personnel Board, also appointed by the governor . . .

It was argued that the state can do the planning cheaper than private architects.

AS A MATTER of record, the Senate Interim Committee on Public Works, under State Senator McCarthy of Marin County, stated in its report, after trying to determine relative planning costs of state-planned vs. private-planned public works . . . it was impractical to establish a satisfactory cost comparison, as cost records in sufficient detail to permit such comparison are not maintained by the division under established accounting and management procedures."

Proposition 10 is a simple, easy understood statement which in no way attacks California's fine civil service, but on the contrary permissively allows the state to contract legally for additional planning aid from private architects and enigneers . . .

Dear Sirs:

I have something on my mind that I think you should know about.

In the rear of the Hagstrom grocery store on Contra Costa Highway and Doray Drive, there are some shacks and a deep cistern by them.

Some children were exploring around them, lifting the top off this cistern. It is an awful looking hole and if a child fell into it, they would never get out.

Maybe you could look into this situation, as I feel the cistern is dangerous and should be filled in.

Thank you.

Flood Bond Campaign Begins With Meeting

A campaign "kickoff" meeting was held Monday by the Citizens' Committee for Flood Control at the Fair Oaks School, Sherman Acres, Concord.

About 100 interested citizens from the Walnut Creek watershed — the zone 3-B water district—were told about the flood control program, how it will be financed, and why it is vital to vote "yes" on the special bond election December 4.

The meeting was conducted by Bryan Shary, chairman of the executive committee of the Citizens' Committee for Flood Control. Other members of the executive committee who spoke were Dick Mitchell, 1170 Elmwood Drive, Walnut Creek; Ed Clay, 2355 Geraldine Drive, Pleasant Hill, and Larry Cordeiro, 2141 Huron Drive, Concord.

THE AUDIENCE also heard from Ray Doran, Concord city manager; Betty Fowler, president of the Concord Chamber of Commerce; Robert Guy, member of the district advisory committee; Carl Rich, chief engineer of the zone 3-B water district, and Ed Wells, engineering and financing expert of Stone and Youngberg, municipal financing consultants.

Campaign buttons and booklets containing the facts about the flood control project were distributed at the close of the meeting.

Shary reminded the people present of last winter's devastating flood damage to more than 750 homes in one area and indirect added costs of maintaining and repairing roads, bridges, utility lines, schools and other facilities.

The importance of a flood control project in this area is demonstrated, Shary said, by the Federal government through the Soil Consevation Sevice, naming the Walnut Ceek wateshed as a pilot zone—one of only three in California and 50 in the nation—to qualify for Federal aid.

FEDERAL AID amounts to $2,130,000 for the construction of flood control works, and the state has agreed to contribute $880,000 towards the costs if the people in the area provide at least an equal amount of funds.

Ed Clay explained that the costs of construction have been rising every year for the past 20 years at about six per cent per year and indications are it will continue to do so.

Clay said also that due to channel erosion and encroachment, the amount of construction work required and the cost of acquiring rights-of-way and easements will increase.

He pointed out that it is cheaper to pay 3½ per cent per year on borrowed money under a bond issue than it is to pay more than 6 per cent a year in the form of higher construction and acquisition costs if the project is delayed.

"FURTHERMORE," he added, "if the bonds are authorized construction can begin immediately and we will have the protection and benerit of the facilities that much sooner."

"It is obvious we cannot do without a flood control project much longer," he concluded," "and future residents of the area will help pay for them since the bonds will be paid off over a period of 32 years."

Robert Guy told the audience that "the flood control plans prepared by a competent staff of engineers have been approved for outright grants mounting to $3,010,000 by Federal and State agencies, but these funds cannot be obtained unless we provide an equal amount of funds on a matching basis.

"The only way we can raise that amount of money immediately is but authorizing bonds," he said.

GUY SAID THAT if the bonds are authorized, the average tax rate for maintenance and operation will be about four cents and the tax to pay interest and bond principal is about 17 cents.

Therefore, he said, the bonds will add only about three cents to the existing zone rate of 18 cents.

To the average home owner with an assessment at $4000 for taxing purposes the bonds mean an increase of only 10 cents per month.

"We are already faced with a zone tax this year of 20 cents," he said, "and if the bonds are not passed, we will continue to be faced with this 20 cents per 100 tax which could not raise enough revenue to complete the flood control project in less than 40 years."

Carl Rich explained that the project included flood control and drainage works on every major stream that drains into Walnut Creek, including Galindo, Grayson, Green Valley, Lafayette, Las Trampas, Pine, San Ramon, Sycamore and Tice Creeks, in addition to major works on Walnut Creek itself.

Dramateurs' 'Anastasia' Goes on Boards Tonight

The Dramateurs' fall production, "Anastasia," will go on the boards tonight at 8:30 at the Berkeley Little Theater, Allston at Grove, Berkeley.

The popular Marcelle Maurette play will be presented there again tomorrow night and Friday and Saturday nights of next week, at 8:30 each night.

Directed by Carl Rasmussen, the cast includes Alice Swenning as Anna, Patricia Winkworth as the Dowager Empress, Eddie Woltz as Prince Bounine, Gordon Kull as Chernov, Paul Pollaczek as Petrovin, John Read as Dr. Serensky, James Harris as Counsellor Drivinitz, Paul Hansen as Prince Paul, Jewel Scheeline as Baroness Livenbaum, and Leonard Nachman, Wirtabel Harris, Grace Duffy and Stanley Wiggan in other roles.

THE STORY of "Anatasia" is the real-life mystery of a woman's identity.

It will be recalled that in the late 1920's a mystery woman appeared in Hungary claiming to be the real Princess Anastasia, youngest daughter of the czar, who had somehow miraculously escaped or survived the massacre of the royal family in 1918.

Her appearance out of nowhere became an international riddle, both politically and socially.

THERE WERE THOSE all over the Continent who accepted her without question.

Theer were also the doubters, who claimed to have proof against her and who added to the confusion of her identity.

The play as written by Marcelle Maurette follows this same possible acceptance or rejection of one Anna Bronin, who appeared in Berlin in 1926. A group of the conspirators, with an eye on the czar's millions deposited in London banks, attempt to prove to the exiled Russian colony that she is their true princess.

Was she Princess Anastasia or an imposter? Maybe you'll be able to decide after seeing the Dramateur's production.

Parkway Strip Through Reservoir Area Sought

Development of a parkway along the San Pablo Dam Road which links central Contra Costa County with its western portion has been called for by the County Park Commission.

The matter has been brought to the attention of the County Planning Commission and the planning staff.

Park commissioners recently stated that, "Parkways should be developed wherever possible, and the San Pablo Dam Road is highly desirable. This would be only about 150 to 200 acres."

The road duns generally northwest from Orinda to San Pablo, and is west of the San Pablo Dam Reservoir, whose 6500 acres of land will later be sold by the East Bay Municipal Utility District.

"THE COMBINATION of circumstances affecting the area leads one to the natural and logical conclusion that a parkway should be developed along the Dam Road," said Alvin Burton, past president of the Contra Costa Park and Recreation Council.

8he New San Pablo Dam Road now under construction roughly parallels the Old Road with narrow strips of land in between.

The Old Road, with a fifty foot right-of-way is owned by the county; the New Road's eventual ownership has not been decided but it is now owned by EBMUD.

The District also owns the entire watershed surrounding San Pablo Reservoir including the land through which the roads pass.

"Studies show that only 150 to 200 acres need to be acquired to create a parkway along the four mile stretch of road. The landscape is highly scenic wtih the San Pablo Reservoir to the east and rolling, partially-wooded, undeveloped hills on both sides of the valley," said Mrs. Burton.

VICTOR SAUER, director of Public Works, has said, "We can think of at least one excellent road within the County, which would provide almost unlimited opportunities for parkways, and that is the Dam Road.

"The views from certain spots on this road are quite lovely and would lend themselves to parkways without much effort."

The alternative to a parkway development, according to Burton is "the usual array of billboards, the customary hot-dog stands and gaspumps, and a solid wall of houses covering the entire landscape."

MAPS AND sketches of a possible development has been prepared by Mrs. Archie Sinclair of Richmond with the cooperation of Mr. Ernest Henderson of the Richmond Planning Staff.

It was studied by a committee whose members included Mr. and Mrs. Burton, of Walnut Creek, Mrs. Byron Cole of Orinda, and Mrs. Basil Winslow, conservation chairman for the California Garden Clubs, also of Orinda.

Further study is planned by the Park Council and the West Contra Costa County Citizens' Committee for Parks and Recreation.

The latter group will hold a public meeting for this purpose November 13 at 8 p.m. in the Coroner's Inquest Room in the County Building at 37th and Bissell in Richmond.

This Is Handicapped Boy Month; Dinner Planned

November has been proclaimed Handicapped Scout Month by Mayor E. C. "Ted" Counter.

This proclamation will be presented to the members of Handicapped Boy Scout Troop 229 by Counter at the Troop's second anniversary dinner on November 12.

The Handicapped Boy Scout Troop is one of the major projects of the Walnut Creek Area Junior Chamber of Commerce. The troop was formed three years ago, patterned after a similar troop in Bakersfield.

THE TROOP IS composed of boys with muscular dystrophy, cerebral palsy, multiple sclerosis, post polio, speech-impediment, deafness and limb deformities.

In spite of these handicaps, the boys progress through the normal channels of Scouting, including overnight camps, field trips and snow trips to the Sierras.

The Walnut Creek troop is one of six such troops in the state sponsored by Junior Chamber locals.

Tom Clarke, local JayCee president, and also State JayCee chairman for the Boy Scout project, stated "a great deal of interest in this program is now being shown by JayCee locals throughout the State and Nation, who feel that this program fills a definite need now existing in the programming for handicapped youth."

CLARKE ADDED, "since this program has been so well received here in the state, the Handicapped Scout story is now being told in foreign countries, in the hope that a program of this type will be started for handicapped children there."

The month of November is being declared Handicapped Scout Month in the hope that parents of handicapped children not yet in Scouting or familiar with the Boy Scout program, will realize what a wonderful opportunity this is for boys.

Persons desiring information may contact Tom Clarke at VE 7-2118 or Dan Simpson at YE 5-0504.

Auxiliary to Hold Annual Fashion Show

Auxiliary Unit 115 of the Walnut Creek American Legion Post will present its second annual fashion show and luncheon on November 10 at 12:30 p.m. in the Danville Hotel, Danville. Luncheon will be served in the hotel patio.

Mrs. William Dudley will be commentator. General chairman is Mrs. Emery Carpenter; assistant chairman is Mrs. Robert Stickel.

Senior and intermediate fashions shown will be furnished by JoAnn's of Walnut Creek, and make-up by Beauty Counselor.

Funds raised will help support the Auxiliary's community service program, which includes the Girls State program and Livermore Hospital activities.

Senior models will be Mesdames Emery Carpenter, Gerald Cuchna, Milt Giulieri, Elmo Giulieri, Armand Annereau, Robert Stickel, Eddie Lopacki, Ray Timper, Donald McLean and Mrs. Ruth Gorow.

Intermediate models will be Madeline DeKloz and Sheila Johnson. Junior models will be Ann and Ellen Bernhus, Barbara, Janet and Margie Annereau, Kathy and Nancy Giulieri, Margaret Farrar and Dianna Lopacki.

Reservations may be made by contacting Mrs. Howard Chappelle, 2761 Walnut Boulevard, Walnut Creek, YE 4-0326. Admission is $2.75.

Baby Shower Held In Nick of Time

Just in time before the arrival of Kay and Fran Watson's new baby boy last weekend was a dinner-shower held in their honor by the Kenneth Mirovs at their Hillcrest Drive home.

A table decorated appropriately with a white manzanita branch dangling with pink, white and blue crepe paper booties was the setting for a delicious ham dinner. Pink bubble gum cigars were the prizes for the after-dinner games.

Celebrating with the Watsons and the Mirovs were the Brooks Gardners, the Glen Heltnes, the John Mortarottis, the Vernon Louises, the Howard Gravelles and the Bob Collins of Marin County.

Dry Skiing Set At YMCA Center

Eric Johnson, well known California ski expert and director of the Cold Springs certified Ski School near Sonora, will give a series of Dry Ski School classes sponsored by the East Contra Costa YMCA and the Youth Group of the Walnut Creek Methodist Church.

Johnson will "set up shop" in the church social hall, 1543 Sunnyvale Avenue on three Thursday nights, November 8, 15 and 22, 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

The sessions are open to both boys and girls and men and women, and are especially designed for the beginner and intermediate skiers. "It's amazing how much skiing you can actually learn in the gym," says Johnson.

"We have an especially built sloping platform and other equipment which is used by the instructors in explaining and demonstrating (on skis) the step by step maneuvers of skiing from the very first walking and climbing steps through the high speed christie," he continued.

Also included in the program are ski movies, exercises, ski do's and don'ts, fashion show, how to select and care for your equipment, ski safety and many other phases important to beginners.

Advance registration may be made by phoning the "Y" office at YE 4-9070. Cost for the six hour course is $3.

Alamo Masons Prepare Early For Celebration

Preparations for observance of the hundredth anniversary of Alamo Lodge No. 122, Free and Accepted Masons, Walnut Creek, in December of next year already are under way, Worshipful Master William E. Connelly said today.

Tentative plans call for a meeting of Masons at the Masonic Temple, Mt. Diablo Boulevard and Locust Street, early in the evening of December 12, 1957, following a buffet dinner.

After the meeting, a centennial ball will be held at a suitable location yet to be determined. Items of historic interest to Masons will be on display at the temple during the event.

Members of a steering committee are as follows:

Perk Slingsby, host; George S. Hanson, building; George L. Ahlf, banquet and refreshments; John H. Demartini, advisory; O. J. Wohlgemuth, reception and special invitations; James Pringle, publications and printing, and John Ferris, publicity and photographs.

Other committee chairmen are: Dale Niles, registration; Charles Berta, tables and seating arrangements; Al Adams, dance arrangements; Earl Schaeffer, tickets and reservations.

Robert Cook, decorations and flowers; Dan Halstead, historical items; Al Leino, transportation, and G. Ray Van de Water, souvenirs.

All committee members will meet at the home of O. J. Wohlgemuth December 4.

CAP Stages Fete For Hallowe'en

About 30 Mt. Diablo Squadron 38, Civil Air Patrol Cadets from Pleasant Hill and Concord attended a Halloween dance party at the squadron's headquarters, Buchanan Field, last Friday evening.

Cadets Carolyn Hicks and Floyd Hicks and Richard Cadenasso were on the decorating committee.

Dance music was furnished by the squadron's juke box.

Among the guests were Major W. C. Husbands, 949 Ruth Drive, Pleasant Hill, the squadron commander; Lt. Armand Annereau 181 Clarie Drive, Pleasant Hill; Cadet Etta Mae Cullivan, fiancee of Cadet Commander Raymond Peterson, and former CAP member Frank S. Nienberg, 2985 Grant Street, Concord, who is now on leave from his station at Fairchild Air Force Base, Spokane, Wash.

Refreshments were served by the cadets.

Dies Behind Store Counter

Found dead behind the counter of his Main Street store Monday evening was 42 year-old J. D. Michael of 1701 Springbrook Road, Walnut Creek. Doctors indicated that the death was due to natural causes.

Funeral services were held yesterday at the Little Chapel of the Flowers, and interment was in the Mountain View Cemetery in Oakland.

Halloween Termed 'Quiet,' Good!

The lack of vandalism in the Pleasant Hill-Walnut Creek area Halloween was sited yesterday by Norm Wilson, chief of the Walnut Creek Sub station of the Contra Cotsa Sheriff's Department.

There was some tomato throwing in the Danville area but in Pleasant Hill and Walnut Creek things were very mild, said Wilson.

Termed one of the quietest Halloweens in recent years, Wilson attributed much of it to the "many adult sponsored activities" in the area.

"There was quite a bit of action around 7 to 8 but this was the younger children trick or treating. The older juveniles were off the streets by 11:30. Most of those children were going home from adult sponsored activities," said Wilson.

Dons, Knights Point to Runner-up Battle

Antioch, Spartans To Provide Tests For Local Crews

Teams of the Diablo Valley Athletic League have showed their strength and found their niches in the standings as the door of the 1956 grid season slowly closes.

Tonight and next Friday night will be the final moments of gridiron glory for the high school athletes this year.

BRIGHT LIGHT on the championship horizon is Pittsburg, the undefeated league powers who are well accustomed to being on top.

They lead the pack by a full game, and with but two to go seem harly likely to stumble.

Hottest race in the loop is for the runner-up spot, with the Acalanes Dons and the Knights of Las Lomas pointing to the season's finale next Friday to decide the issue.

Action tonight finds the Acalanes eleven hitting the road to play Antioch under the lights of the Paper City Stadium.

THE DONS APPEAR to be back on the track after being derailed by Pitt two weeks ago. They look like winner tonight, barring a letdown such as they suffered against the Pirates.

The Antioch crew has picked up in its latest outings and has a habit of reaching a season's high for the Don tilt.

But better balance and a better record swing the tide of favoritism toward the Dons.

LAS LOMAS, which has played well all season and lost a heartbreaker last week to Pitt, figures to be too much for Pacifica to handle.

The fracas will be played at Acalanes Memorial Field.

Pittsburg takes on the Rams of Pleasant Hill, and it looks like the local lads will have to go all out to keep the score in bounds.

The Rams have displayed good defensive strength but their lack of a scoring punch make them no match for the irrepressible Pirates.

DIABLO DRAWS the bye and sits this one out.

Friday night of next week will wind up the season.

Pleasant Hill gets the reprieve in the form of a bye, but the others will go all out in an attempt to bow out in style.

The big one will be the local match between the Dons and the Knights — the fight for second place.

TIME AND PLACE have not as yet been established, as it's a home game for the Knights but it is questionable whether their newly installed lights will be ready.

If not, Acalanes Memorial Field will provide the arena for the two rivals.

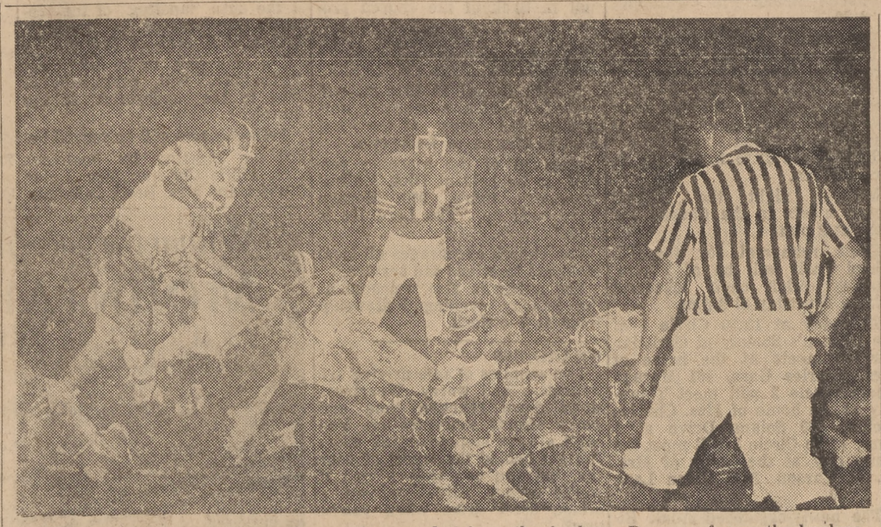
This one appears closer than the paper to the wall. If an edge must be given, the Knights must get it off their showing against Pittsburg.

BOTH CLUBS are pointing for this one, and if the weatherman is obliging there should be a capacity crowd on hand for what could be the game of the year.

Pittsburg and Antioch tangle at Antioch, but Pitt doesn't figure to be toppled from its lofty position in this one.

Diablo and Pacifica play at Concord and the Devils, while holding an edge in experience and depth, figure to have their hands full.

The Spartans, in their first season of varsity play, have showed well and have served notice that they will have to be contended with before very long.



'TWAS A STORM — not from the weatherman but from the Acalanes Dons, as far as the hapless Pacifica Spartans were concerned, last Friday night at Acalanes Memorial Field. Heroine Will Be 'Pure as Snow'

A riotous melodrama and olio is to be presented in Lafayette's Contra Costa Jewish Community Center November 17 and 18, starting at 8:30 p.m.

The comedy "mellow drammer" is titled, "Pure As The Driven Snow," or "A Working Girl's Secret," and it will be presented by the Center's Drama Club under the direction of Leon Cohen.

"Pure as the Driven Snow" is the tale of a persecuted heroine wherein virtue triumphs over villainy.

Taking the leading roles will be Dr. Don Sterns as Leander Longfellow, the brave and manly-bosomed hero, Marge Sterns as Purity, the chaste and chased young heroine, Harry Freeman as Mortimer Frothingham, a wolf in any sort of clothing, and Helen Abend as Imogene, the wealthy girl who doesn't get her man.

Supporting them will be Sidney Lifton, Belle Krumholz, Macy Spellman, Pearl Bloom, Barbara Goldeen, Rose Spellman, and teen agers Ronnie Hoffman, Deanna Dinkin and Vivian Shay.

Dr. Ben Brudney will act as master of ceremonies, and he will introduce a cast of talented performers selected especially for their parts in the olio.

Among these will be Linda Brudney, Marge Sterns and Mickey Freeman, plus several surprise acts.

Serving as singing waiters will be Art Weisberg, Norman Daneiko, Merv Silberman, Art Scharlach and Herman Stutz.

Ways and Means Chairman Herb Martin announced that all proceeds from the show, the Center's biggest money raising effort of the year, will go toward the Center Building Fund.

Tickets are $1.50 and may be obtained by phoning Barbara Silberman, YE 5-1655, or Herman Stutz, AT 4-4232.

Dons Bounce Back Against Pacifica 27-0

Perhaps spurred by the well-remembered walloping at the hands of Pitt two weeks ago, the Acalanes Dons did some rapping of their own last Friday night and romped past Pacifica, 27-0.

In a game that found the Dons sweeping the bench, the Acalanes crew racked up one TD in the first stanza, two in the second and one more in the third.

MIDWAY IN the opening period of play, Don halfback John Woolridge broke off tackle to bring the ball to the 5 from the 23. The speedy back then plunged over center for the final yardage and the tally.

Fullback Stuart Busby applied the toe for point number 7.

In the second quarter Busby, on a well executed crossbuck, went over tackle, cut to the right and sped downfield for 70 yards before gliding unmolested over the goal line.

End Larry Kent of Pacifica blocked the ensuing try for the extra point.

THE LIMELIGHT next fell on sub fullback George McMeans, who brought the ball to the Pacifica 4 on a 16 yard romp off tackle near the end of a 40 yard march.

The sophomore then found a hole up the middle and dove in for the score.

This time Busby split the uprights and brought the count to 20-0.

IN THE THIRD quarter Don linebacker Dick Neuman picked off a flat pass and scrambled untouched 40 yards to the final touchdown. Busby's conversion made it 27-0.

Late in the game Pacifica drove deep into Acalanes territory, only to fumble and lose the ball.

The Spartans, however, proved to be surprisingly tough in spots, particularly on defense. It was those startling Don breakaway runs that broke the Spartan back.

In the final analysis, the heavier and more eperienced Acalanes line played an instrumental role in the Don victory.

Bruins, Red Skins Lead in Flag Football

The Bruins are ahead in the fifth grades, and the Red Skins of the sixth grades, in flag football being played each week at the Walnut Creek city park.

The Bruins have two wins, while the Spartans have a win and a loss in the younger league. The order after that has the Bears, Indians, Tigers and Huskies.

The Red Skins have won three games, and tied in one game, and their nearest competitors, the Giants, have two wins and one tie.

After that come the Rams, Lions, Eagles, Browns and 49'ers.

St. Mary's to Host Debates

College speakers from 15 Californiia colleges will gather at St. Mary's College for the Northern California Forensics Association fall tournament today and tomorrow.

The activities of the two day meet will include competition in debate, discussion, original oratory, interpretative extemporaneous speaking, and impromptu speaking.

"The Role of the U.S. in the Middle East" will be the subject of the discussion period; the extemporaneous and impromptu speakers will talk on "The November Election, 1956."

Air Reservist 'Biggest Party'

Under the direction of Major David C. Ross of Lafayette, the Fall Harvest party of the 9441 Air Reserve Squadron will begin tomorrow night.

The party is slated to be "the big one" of the season for the unit.

Dress will be informal—sport shirts for the men and cotton prints for the ladies.

The festivities will be at the squadron headquarters, 2040 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Walnut Creek.

Films Give Insight Into Gridiron Play, Problems

By ERWIN MATTSON

I have taken motion pictures of several Acalanes football games, and the thing that has impressed me more than ever is how little time the ball is actually in play.

Twelve minutes of film cover the whole game, and even that includes a lot of time when the ball isn't in play.

Actually, a player is "in action" no more than 7-10 minutes. Tremendous energy can be expended in that time.

MANY PLAYERS, particularly on warm days, lose ten pounds or more during the course of a game. Last Saturday in the U.S.C.-Stanford frosh game my nephew lost 15 pounds.

Of course, the fact that he is 6'5" and weighs 265 had something to do with it.

The other thing that we notice in the films is how few perfect plays are made—plays in which everyone carries out his assignment and no obvious errors are made.

WITH ELEVEN players on a team the problems are many. Play execution gives everyone a part to play. The big job is to get them to play it well . . . all at the same time.

One of the other problems is that of personalities. To get eleven players who are in agreement and play for the good of the team is a rarity.

When you get that you have a great team. Desire and loyalty are the prerequisites to successful play.

THE LIGHTS at Las Lomas are a big question mark at this writing. There is doubt as to when they will go into operation. There is an outside chance that they will be ready for the season's finale with Acalanes next Friday night.

One thing certain is that they will be the best in Northern California when they go on. The 100 foot poles get the lights high up enough for an all-important even distribution of light.

Three Teams Are on Top For Bowlers

McFetridge Buick and O'Haras Trophies bowlers are leading the Monument 785 Scratch League, each with 16 wins and eight losses.

In the Monument 750 Handicappers League, the Nut Bowl is out in front with 21 wins and 11 losses.

In scratch league play last week, Jim Waite won high game and high series honors with a 208 and a 574.

Diablo Fence shot a 2595 series for high league series. Games were 800, 896 and 899.

In the handicap league, Keith Ortland rolled a 263 for high game, and added a 161-158 for a 582 high series.

Ortland Plumbing rolled games of 711-877-802 for a 2390 high team series. The 877 was high for team games.

Barn Dance is Tomorrow at Sportsmans Club

"Jeans and Calico" is the theme chosen for the barn dance-box social to be given tomorrow evening at the Sportsmen's Club in Walnut Creek.

This social event will be sponsored by three members of the Flicker Unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center—Mesdames John J. Bell, Norman S. Fletcher and James Marlais.

All proceeds will benefit the Therapy Center as have the profits from other events held during the year by members of the Flicker Unit.

Invited guests will be admitted upon the presentation of a box supper for two. Auctioneering of the box suppers will be followed by dancing and impromptu entertainment by members of the group.

Additional social events are being planned by other members of the Flickers for the holiday months.

The next major function will be a fashion-luncheon to be held at Castlewood Country Club in March, under the direction of Mrs. E. William Palmer.

The next regular meeting of the Flickers will be held at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Sanford. She will be assisted by Mrs. H. E. Vincent, co-hostess.

Matadors Hope To Topple JV Leaders Today

The Matadors of Miramonte High have built up a full head of steam for this afternoon's game with the Little Devils of Mt. Diablo at 3 p.m. at Miramonte.

Rested up after last week's game was rained out, the Matadors have a full squad in good health and should be at a high pitch for today's juinor varsity game.

The Orinda eleven was scheduled to tackle Antioch last Friday, only to have the weatherman intervene. The game was postponed to last Monday, but once again the rains came.

With the fates seeming to be in opposition, the game was cancelled.

The result is that Miramonte will wind up the season next Friday when they take on the Pleasant Hill Rams in a 3:30 p.m. game on the Rams' field.

Both of the two remaining Matador games appear to be toughies. The Devils stand atop the league undefeated, while the Rams are close behind with just a single blotch on their record.

The Miramonte club has but one win, but could well win its last two.

All of their games have been close and in doubt until the final gun. Loss of key personnel from game to game has hampered them. But these stalwarts are back in good shape and Coach Don Phillips' crew could top the two league leaders.

The starting lineup for the Matadors in this afternoon's fracas finds a backfield comprising Floyd Blaney at quarterback, Gary Lucas, left half, Ron Brown, right half, and Bickey Clifford at fullback.

It will be Mike Wilmar and Mike Albo in the guard slots. Tim Maloney will open at one tackle, and either Tim Crawford or Dave Puddy will hold down the other side of the line.

Marc Littlejohn and Bob Hudson hold forth at the flanker spots.

John O'Conner is slated to see action at defensive tackle, as is Bill Klement. Bob Tesman will attempt to stop the Little Devils from his defensive end slot.

Randy Young will do some balltoting at right half, while Brown will do double duty at half and fullback.

Knights Sparkle In 6-0 Loss to Tough Pirates

The Knights of Las Lomas High faced the dragons of the football loop last Friday night and battled on even ground for two hours before succumbing in the final minutes to the Pittsburg Pirates, 6-0.

Reaching a season's high point, the Knights rocked and socked the Pirates all night long. Several times they were in scoring position, only to bog down on two occasions and fumble away a third chance.

IN THE SECOND quarter the Knights drove to the one yard line, where they had first down, only to lose the ball when quarterback Jim Symington fumbed.

The mishap was caused by the smashing play of Pirate guard Roger Gregoire.

On another occasion the Knights went to the Pirate 19 before their machine stalled. A field goal attempt from that point went astray, and the vision of six big points on the scoreboard crumbled.

Once again the Las Lomas stalwarts went deep into Pirate territory. This time is was an official who got balled up. The magistrate called a fourth down when it should have been third.

AFTER A PLAY was run, the decision was reversed when Pitt coach Tony Knap agreed there was another down to go in the series.

This was late in the 4th quarter. Pitt, with their backs to the wall on their own 29, and with time running out on the scoreless tie, decided to gamble on a fourth down.

With two yards to go, Pitt ran for it, made the first down, and the Knights' doom was sealed.

TEN PLAYS later Pitt had crossed the goal line, and the 6 on the board spelled the difference.

Halfback Randy James proved to be the Pirate hero when he made five yards on that crucial 4th down, then climaxed the drive with a 14 yard sweep around right end for the score.

PITT MISSED on the conversion try, but it really didn't matter.

There were just 4½ minutes remaining, and the game was too tight for any further scoring.

Knight coaches George De Klotz and George Davis had high praise for their players, with good cause. Las Lomas held an edge all the way to the final minutes due to a gallant all-out effort.

QUARTERACK SYMINGTON was reported to have been at an all-time best as he outplayed Pitt's highy touted Charles Verdugo in every department.

The Pirate QB, of course, had much trouble showing as he was bottled up most of the night by a rough and ready Las Lomas defense.

Field Goal Try Fails; Vikings Salvage 6-6 Tie

An attempted field goal in the final seconds of play was unsuccessful for the East Contra Costa Junior College Vikings Saturday, and they tied, 6-6, with Monterey Peninsula College.

The game was played at the Alhambra High School in Martinez.

The Vikings scored in the first quarter. A quarterback sneak by Grover Garvin climaxed a 50-yard march. But the conversion attempt was wide to the right.

Just 18 seconds before the end of the first half, Monterey picked up its six points on a pass by quarterback Dennis Simmonds to end Grimm Mason, covering 29 yards. This ended a 53-yard drive.

The Viking field goal attempt by Bill Parnell from the 20 yard-line was blocked by opposing center Bob Young.

The local team collected 12 first downs to Monterey's six. It has four wins this season, and one loss.

Outstanding local lineman was tackle Ray Bartels, and top backfielder Saturday was Jim McMillan.

Rams Beaten 6-0 by Devils On Wet Field

The Pleasant Hill Rams held Mt. Diablo High gridders scoreless until the third period of the game, last Friday night, but the Red Devils won, 6-0, after a 60 yard drive and a touchdown pass.

A wet field was blamed for the lack of offensive power on both sides.

The hosts' opportunity came when the Rams kicked to the opposition 40 yard line. Thirteen plays later, and six yards from the goal, Devil Quarterback Merle Marshall tried a pass.

t was taken by halfback Rod Atnip who burst from the right flat into the end zone.

Pleasant Hill got to the Mt. Diablo nine yard-line late in the first quarter, but a fumble was caught up by a defensive end.

The unsuccessful drive from the Diablo 47 yard-line was aided by a 10 yard dash by Ram Game Captain John Lockwood, a 17 yard screen pass from quarterback Bud Buffa to Larscheid, and Larscheid's 12 yard gallop over right tackle.

The Rams picked up 101 yards rushing to Mt. Diablo's 173, and their first six downs were outnumbered by the hosts' eight.

JayCee Cagers Practicing for Hopeful Season

The Walnut Creek Junior Chamber of Commerce will soon start its fourth season of league basketball after several hard practice sessions.

Men in this age 21 to 35 organization who are expected to bolster the club's contention for the league championship include Douglas Cowan, Art Bouterious, Bob Luhr, Andre Coulter, John Childers, Bruce Copeland, Tom Hasper, Bill Stone, Ted Merrill, Baxter Kimbrough, Jack Rowan and Bob Nagy.

Practice sessions are currently being held at the City Recreation Hall and Las Lomas High School Gym. The home court league games are expected to be played at the Pleasant Hill High School Gym.

"There is new enthusiasm in competing with such perrenial winners as the Hayward and Oakland Jaycees because of some new men with height, which has been definitely lacking in the past," said President Tom Clarke.

Young men between the ages of 21 and 35 who are interested in joining the group may contact Clarke, at VErnon 7-2118.

Local Skaters to Represent U.S. In World Meet

An Orinda husband and wife figure skating team will dance over the ice early next year in competition with the world's top skaters for the world figure skating championship.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bodel of 64 La Encinal have been named to the dance team that will represent the United States in the international championships February 26 through March 2 at Colorado Springs, Colo.

The couple was named by the U. S. Figure Skating Association.

Agnes Tyson and Richard Swenning of San Francisco were named to alternate spots on the pairs team.

The U. S. National championship will be held March 13-16 in Berkeley.

Committee Will Strive to Light PH High Gridiron

Roy L. Bonney, chairman of the "Lights for Pleasant Hill High School Football Field" Committee, and his committeemen, Mike Kiely and Ben Hartinger, met with A. C. Bloom, principal of Pleasant Hill High School to discuss the "problem."

A public subscription will soon be initiated to enable the people of Pleasant Hill to aid the students in obtaining the necessary funds for erecting lights.

Lights on the football field are a necessary and integral factor in community wide recreational activity, said Bonney. The facility will be used for many community wide activities aside from football for the proper development of area youth.

The committee will meet with the Board of the Mt. Diablo Unified School District to determine whether it is feasible for the district's architect to advise the committee on the needs of a lighting system and the approximate cost.

It is the committee's belief that about $35,000 is needed. It is hoped that the student body through their efforts and projects can raise 10 to 15 per cent of this amount. The committee believes it can raise the balance.

Bloom consented to wholeheartedly support this community drive and will aid the committee in this project.

PH JayVees in 6-6 Tie; Title Still in Doubt

The Pleasant Hill Junior Varsity gridders tied, 6-6 with Mt. Diablo High counterparts, last Friday night.

This leaves both teams unbeaten, and sharing the top berth of the league standings, with four wins and a tie apiece.

The locals scored in the second period, when quarterback Bill Locatelli churned his way over left guard, ending a 24 yard drive.

A pass for the extra point failed.

The little Devils evened the score in the third quarter, after two long runs, but the running play for the extra point was futile.

Just One Vet Named on Top

Coach Jim Weaver named a tentative first string as the St. Mary's cagers began their second week of practice.

All-America guard candidate Odell Johnson (6.2) is the only veteran in the sophomore studded lineup. Paired with Johnson in the backcourt is soph Andy Sloane (5.10), transfer from DePaul University.

The tentative Gael front line includes Dick Sigaty (6.4) and LaRoy Doss (6.6) at forwards, with Mike Carosielli (6.6) at center.

Pressing for starting berths are returnees Lou Ferrario (6.6) and Mike Moran (6.1), and sophs Bob Dold (5.10), Dave Wallace (6.5), Joe Barry (6.3) and George Hunter (6.1).

Soph Erv Blue, leading scorer among the Gael freshmen last year, has been held out of practice thus far because of injuries.

Two lettermen who sat out last season because of injuries will also play. They are guards Jack Fenton (6.3) and Jack Witry (6.1).

Route 4 Opponents Carry Dispute to Gov. Knight

Determined that Governor Goodwin J. Knight intervene in the Shepherd Canyon Freeway controversy, opponents of the state-proposed Route 4 plan to see him personally.

Robert Thaman, attorney for the six community groups organized against the state engineer favored direct route, told The Sun yesterday that a delegation would go to Sacramenta "probably some time next week."

THE MOVE would be a follow-up to the protest petition, signed by some 600 Orinda residents which was sent to the governor last week asking him to intervene.

Although Governor Knight had not as yet acknowledged receipt of the petition, which called the state route "drastically disadvantageous to the community," a personal visit to him was hoped to have more effect.

"We expect that something will be done after we see the governor," Thaman said.

HE ADDED that members of the proposed delegation have not yet been named.

The attorney, representing the six groups organized into the Orinda-Moraga Homeowners Association, said that "we still have an uphill fight."

One of the objectors' strongest arguments is that community values have not been given adequate consideration by the state engineers favoring the route directly across Moraga Valley.

THAMAN SAID that legislation put considerations of community values in the hands of engineers, and "they're just not qualified for these considerations."

He said that the Homeowners Association was trying to get the state legislature to change present laws in this field and get a better qualified body to judge.

"I think we still have a chance," the attorney said.

THEH CHANCES of the association to dissuade the state engineers from carrying out original recommendations on the freeway received serious setbacks at an October 3 public hearing at Miramonte High School.

At that meeting the Board of Supervisors left the opposition camp and joined the state in favor of the hotly-disputed Red Route 4.

PROPONENTS OF Route 4 contend the route is shortest, cheapest to construct and would be most beneficial to users. They do not consider valid the associations' argument that community values are being ignored.

The Homeowners Association has stated that adequate consideration has not been given to Route 2, the Indian Valley Route.

This alternative to the state's route was ruled out by the supervisors and other authorities as too long and too costly.

The newly-organized Adult Bible Class will meet for the first time on November 11 at 9:30 a.m. at the church. The class will be headed by John Hess, assisted by Frank Westfall.

The two leaders of the class, working in conjunction with Rev. Lewis, will present a program designed to meet modern Biblical interpretations and applications.

The class will be held in the rear room of the main social hall in back of the church proper.

Baptist

Sunday School at 10 a.m. will precede the 11 a.m. morning worship service Sunday at the First Baptist Church of Lafayette.

Message of the morning service, to be held at Dick Mathis' Stationery Store, 969 Moraga Road, will be, "The Lord He is God."

The church encourages all local residents to attend the service.

The public is also welcome at the Sunday evening Fellowship Hour at 7 o'clock.

WEARINESS

Two enemies of safe driving are weariness and worry. Weariness slows down reaction time and worry affects concentration. You can't always stop worryink when you get behind the wheel of your car, but you can take a rest if you're weary. Give yourself a break, don't drive when you're tired

DON DOYLE
LOOK AT HIS RECORD

A TEAM PLAYER

As your Assemblyman, Don Doyle has worked with his fellow legislators to bring this county more concrete results from State government than it has ever had before! Look at our new freeways, state aid for our schools, new bridges, teacher retirement benefits, our future State park to see how effective this team-work has been!

A DYNAMIC LEADER

In Don Doyle, Contra Costa has sent to Sacramento a rising and able leader in State affairs. Doyle heads the vital Assembly Committee on Education, and holds seniority and influence which are putting Contra Costa on the legislative map.

A HARD WORKER

Don Doyle has traveled more than 60,000 miles in the past year to serve Contra Costa's needs. He has met with more than 300 groups to learn our problems. He has responded to the needs of his district, however large or small.

A TRUE HUMANITARIAN

Across the board, labor is for Doyle. . . . . Businessmen applaud his service to Contra Costa. . . . . teachers and school groups support him . . . . . 46 per cent of Democrats voted for Doyle in the primaries. All these groups know that Don Doyle represents his district with utmost vigor and fairness, regardless of color, economic station, or political affiliation. THAT IS WHY YOUR ASSEMBLYMAN IS PRODUCING RESULTS FOR YOU!

Propositions? Here Is Brief Summary of Content

When the polls open Tuesday, California voters will be asked to consider 19 propositions. As a public service, The Sun lists below the propositions and a brief explanation of their content.

PROPOSITION 1

Seeks approval of a bond issue of $500 million to be used by the Department of Veterans Affairs in assiting California war veterans to acquire farms and homes.

PROPOSITION 2

Asks issuance and sale of $100 million of state bonds to provide loans and grants to school districts for school sites, construction and equipment. Authorizes legislation providing for allocation for schools for handicappel or retarded children.

PROPOSITION 3

Seeks approval for issuance and sale of $200 million of state bonds to carry out building program, including buildings and sites for state educational institutions, mental and correctional institutions and other state facilities. Not less than $60 million shall be available for state colleges.

PROPOSITION 4

Prohibits waste, defined as production methods which reduce maximum economic quantity of oil or gas ultimately recoverable by good engineering practices. Creates California Oil and Gas Conservation Commission to prevent waste by any necessary orders, including orders limiting production.

PROPOSITION 5

Eliminates present provision permitting service of intoxicating liquor only in bona fide hotels, restaurants and other public eating places. Authorizes service of alcoholic beverages in public premises in which food need not be served.

PROPOSITION 6

Provides that tax exemption for churches shall extend to adjacent or non-adjacent property necessarily and reasonably needed for and used exclusively for church parking lot.

PROPOSITION 7

Changes name of the Assembly of California Legislature to House of Representatives.

PROPOSITION 8

Requires budget session of Legislature to convene in February of each even-numbered year instead of March.

PROPOSITION 9

Authorizes establishment by county charter of a borough form of government either for all or part of unincorporated territory of county, any such borough to exercise such county powers and be administered as provided by the county charter.

PROPOSITION 10

Provides that civil service requirements shall not prevent Legislature from adopting laws permitting state to employ private architects and engineers by contract when work cannot be performed by state agency staff within the required time.

PROPOSITION 11

Allows one year instead of six months for preparation of proposed county charter by board of freeholders.

PROPOSITION 12

Sets maximum permissible terms of statutory state bond issues at 50 instead of 75 years. Declares that full publicity is given to state bond propositions in ballot pamphlets prepared by Secretary of State. Eliminates requirement that such propositions be published for three months in newspaper in each county.

PROPOSITION 13

Repeals inoperative law of 1920 which formerly denied aliens ineligible to citizenship the right to hold real estate in California.

PROPOSITION 14

Authorizes Legislature to provide for selection of legislative officers, attaches and employees, deleting existing limitations regarding method of hiring and amount of daily payroll during session.

PROPOSITION 15

Authorizes the state and each political subdivision, district, and city to acquire shares of mutual water company stock for the purpose of securing public water supplies.

PROPOSITION 16

Deletes present time limits within which Supreme Court hearing may be ordered after decision by District Court of Appeals. Authorizes Judicial Council to fix such time limits by rule.

PROPOSITION 17

Repeals a constitutional provision which formerly regulated salaries of superior court and appellate judges.

PROPOSITION 18

Makes judge of a justice court eligible for office as judge of a superseding municipal court, even though he is not an attorney, where he has served as inferior judge continuously since November, 1945.

PROPOSITION 19

Empowers Legislature to change, alter and redefine California's state boundaries in cooperation with adjoining states and subject to approval of Congress. Authorizes legislation to adjust property taxes as required by such boundary changes.

Under The Sun

By Herman Silverman

Yes, No — Yes or No?

How are you going to vote on the Propositions? Have you decided yet?

If you haven't, you have a tough job ahead. Early last night I picked up a stack of literature — pros and cons prepared by opposing sides, extensive reports from the study sections of the Commonwealth Club of California, recommendations of various organizations and other newspapers, letters written to The Sun and news releases.

At 1:30 a.m. I called a halt. It certainly reminded me of cramming for exams. Most of the propositions are noncontroversial and they are a cinch. But mighty tough are propositions 4, 10 and 155, as well as Proposition A — formation of an Alameda Contra Costa Transit District. Note brief summary of the propositions and recommendations on this page.

Last week I discussed my views on Prop. 4 (oil conservation) and decided to vote no. Primary reason is that, although oil conservation is worthwhile, it should not be written into the State constitution. It is a problem for the legislature.

And the roof fell in

Well, this week the roof almost fell in on me. Letters-to-the-editor strongly disagreed — plus several phone calls. The proponents do have a sound argument. They say that the legislature will not enact oil conservation measure. However, the legislature in the past has done so; there are sound conservation laws on the books today. I could be wrong — but I'm still going to vote no.

Prop. A — two-county transit district? We think it is a very good idea for Oakland and other East Bay Cities. It's purpose is to have a stand-by measure if and when the Key System must be taken over. It is designed for this purpose. We hope that Alameda voters give it a strong yes — for it will then be formed for their area.

However, we recommend a no vote here. The legislation is so drafted that if cities and parcels of unincorporated areas vote no they will be excluded from the district. The Sun has devoted many columns to this subject and many hours of study. Additional stories will be found elsewhere in this edition.

Here is a real toughie

Prop. 10 is a real headache. It provides that the legislature may enact legislation to authorize the employment of private architects and engineers for work which the state staff is unable to perform within the time public interest requires.

I have been deluged with pamphlets, letters and literature espousing both sides. Friends and readers in this area are personally concerned with this measure. Ben Mallary, now retired, was a member of the State Personnel Board for many years and is opposed to the measure. Also actively opposing it is Charles Smith, who is past president of the California State Employees' Association.

I just received a letter in favor of Prop. 10 from Robert D. Dalton Jr., a structural engineer. George Kern, an architect, is county chairman of the campaign for Prop. 10. All are residents of this area and have sent material.

In this corner . . .

Well, I read the pro arguments and was completely convinced that 1) the state has a tremendous backlog of "paid for" public works pojects that have not advanced to the drawing boards; 2) there are not enough state engineers and architects to handle this and future work; 3) engineering and architectural firms should be hired for specific jobs when the state people are unobtainable; 4) private firms cannot now do this work for the state.

Then, I read a stack of material from the opposition and was convinced the other way.

So, this morning I checked the opinions of others—League of Women Voters, S.F. Chronicle, S.F. Examiner, Sacramento Bee and Union, Redwood City Tribune, Salinas Californian. They all said no. Two state legislators, who originally sponsored the measure in the senate, have reversed their stand because they had not foreseen "serious dangers."

To me, the crux is not whether state civil service would be endangered or that private architects and engineers would benefit from it. It is: Roads and state projects, already paid for, should not be held up by lack of professional planning skills.

And in the other corner . . .

Opponents of the measure deny there is a backlog and give statistics to show that millions of dollars have gone to private architects and engineers for state work. They insist that this has been done and can be done, when necessary.

The literature from each side completely contradicts the other.

So, next I read the State booklet on amendments to the constitution—which each voter receives. The California Legislative Counsel flatly states:

"Under the present provision, the courts have held that non-civil service contracts can be used by the State, without violating Article 24, where such contract services cannot be performed adequately, competently or satisfactorily under civil service."

That sold me. We recommend a no vote on Prop. 10. As long as private architects and engineers can be hired when there are not enough state men to do the job, Prop. 10 seems unnecessary.

Plug for McKirahan and Howard

One additional note: Even though you vote no on Prop. A, be sure to vote for directors of the district anyway. For this area, Ward 1, may I personally recommend John McKirahan. I do not know the other candidate, so this may not be entirely fair. But John is past president of the Contra Costa Commuters Association and knows well the problems of our area. For one Director-at-large, I recommend Charles P. Howard Jr., an able local resident who could well represent the entire district.

Remember that The Sun will broadcast local election returns next Tuesday night in co-operation with Pittsburg Station KECC. If you want to help us cover the polls, drop into any of our offices after 8 Tuesday night.

See you at the polls Tuesday.

All We Want Are The Facts!

Vote Tuesday!

Letters to The Editor

DISAPPOINTED

Dear Editor:

I was deeply disappointed in your "Under the Sun" column comment of October 19 on Proposition 4, because your reasoning seemed so plausible and yet, because it neglected to dig into the assumptions underlying the reasoning, a completely invalid conclusion was reached.

If I may presume to summarize your argument, it reads: Oil conservation is desirable; Proposition 4 is a good means of obtaining conservation; however, it is a complex and legally difficult measure and it might be desirable to amend parts of it later after they have been tried out; therefore, this measure should be passed by the Legislature, not the people, so that it can be amended later, and, as a corollary, we should vote against Proposition 4.

The trouble with this reasoning is that it makes the completely unjustified assumption that if we, the voters, reject Proposition 4, the Legislature will then automatically pass an oil conservation measure essentially equivalent to it.

Nothing could be farther from the truth. . . .

Oil conservation is badly needed; if Proposition 4 is defeated, there is no possibility that a conservation measure will be enacted by the Legislature in the foreseeable future if ever. Therefore, as voters, we should enthusiastically vote for Proposition 4.

BLUE SKY, MUDDY ROAD

Dear Editor:

Even while it was still raining last Friday the sky turned blue in sections of Lafayette. At least, the air turned blue— and for good reasons.

All the good things said about the work on the by-pass vanished into air as car after car skidded to a halt in a thick layer of mud on the access road grade at the Oak Hill Road intersection.

One car spun to a slithering halt faced north on an east-west road. Others spun their wheels aimlessly in a vain effort to negotiate the grade.

Finally, the road scrapers came to the rescue and removed the film of mud to allow residents of Valley View and La Canada to return home.

Beside the blue air there were probably some red faces— it all happened right next to the office of the engineers for the State Division of Highways.

Name withheld on request

WHY IMPROVE ROAD?

Dear Editor:

I would like to point out to you and to the tax-payers of Contra Costa County a glaring mis-use of county funds proposed by the Board of Supervisors.

In the matter of the rock quarry in Redwood Canyon, the board is considering placing the burden of the repair and improvement of Pinehurst Road, which the quarry would use, on everyone but the operator of the quarry.

For us to bear the burden of the $60,000 to $85,000 improvement cost is ridiculous and a gross mis-use of the taxpayer's money.

The Board has never shown such concern for the residents of Redwood Canyon, who use the road daily, or for the thousands of motorists who use the road to see the redwoods and enjoy the beautiful scenery.

Why should the board be so willing to improve the road for the quarry operator, particularly when his gravel trucks will keep it in constant need of repair?

Why should we contribute the money to a quarry we are against and which is detrimental not only to the park advantages of the area, but to our health, welfare and safety?

Mr. McCosker is perfectly capable of building and maintaining a road of his own through his property in Indian Valley. The burden of the road should be Mr. McCosker's, and not the County's.

MRS. SUE JENSEN

What They Say

Propositions Need Study

When voters file to the polls next Tuesday, they'll be confronted with a long ballot filled with names and questions and data and little spaces for marking Xs.

Way up at the top of the form will be the names of presidential candidates and other leading politicians, well-publicized people whose parties and backgrounds are familiar to most.

BUT FURTHER down, in smaller type, will be listed some 19 questions whose answers will directly and heavily affect the people of this state.

These are the California Constitutional Propositions, many of which will be as unfamiliar to a majority of voters as Hieroglyphics.

When your Roving Reporter asked local residents this week whether they had as yet decided on how they were going to vote on these vital issues, he found that most of them still had a lot of studying to do before they made their decisions.

Take Mrs. Joseph Danna of 163 Moraga Highway, Orinda, for instance.

She said that the only proposition she was familiar with was No. 4, the controversial oil conservation issue.

"I HAVEN'T studied the others as yet," she answered, "but certainly will before election time."

Dr. John L. Linville, 3472 Moraga Boulevard, Lafayette, was in much the same position when queried.

He said that he'd "decided on several, but I'll have to read over the rest." He also vowed to do this before Tuesday.

"WE WANT to give more study to a couple of the propositions," said Mrs. Volney Plumb, 44 Barbara Road, Orinda. She disclosed that she and her family had looked over the issues, and "have decided on most of them."

Not so for Herbert Hauser, 3640 Mosswood Drive, Lafayette, whose study of the propositions has been hindered by an illness.

"I haven't gone over them yet," Hauser said, "but surely intend to study them before the election."

Mantovani Show In Area Sunday

When Mantovani brings his orchestra and his "new music" to the San Francisco Civic Auditorium Sunday afternoon for a single concert, it will be the Bay Area's first chance to see and hear "England's Mr. Music" in person.

He is known almost everywhere, though, through his innumerable recordings, including "Cara Mia," whcih Mantovani composed for David Whitfield; "Green Sleeves," "Prelude to the Stars," "Dancing with Tears in My Eyes," and "Charmaine" which has become his theme song.

Tickets for his local concert are now available at Sherman Clay and all agencies.

Letters to The Editor

WHERE'S OUR HOME?

Dear Editor:

I am living at 35 El Gavilan in Orinda. I have to go up Charles Hill Road, past the new Fire House, left past St. Stephen's Church, right up to the top of the hill to El Gavilan.

There are no signs showing where or ho wto get to El Gavilan. You simply steer by "compass."

However, we have tried through Martinez to get some signs showing how to get to El Gavilan, but it seems the last strip to the top of the hill is not a county road. Because of this, they say they can's furnish signs.

Also, the road down Charles Hill is in terrible shape. It is narrow and full or ruts, with big ditches on the sides.

Since the Fire House is now near us, it surely seems that the Charles Hill Road should be widened and modernized. In my opinion, it is a hazard to everyone driving on it.

With no signs to guide our friends to where we live, it makes us furnish a map. The bill collectors seem to find us, but no one else .

My question is, "Can't Orinda have the road up Charles Hill made less hazardous? Can't we have some signs to show where our street is?"

These are small requests for a taxpayer, I think.

YOUNG PEOPLE and their cars were given "the test" Saturday morning, when the went on the Contra Costa Safety-Economy Run. Sponsors included the California Highway Patrol, and the State Automobile Association. Left to right are Capt. R. R. Magill of the Highway Patrol, Wesley Waite, Las Lomas High winner, Caroline Coffee of Acalanes High, Ron Frankis, association representative, Randy Smith of San Ramon High, and Sheriff Harry Brown.

Acalanes Team, PH Boy Take Honors in 'Run'

Acalanes High School's team of student drivers took top honors in the Contra Costa Safety-Economy Run last Saturday. Their team average of 47.525 ton miles per gallon earned them the Sweepstakes Trophy.

Close behind in second place was the Pleasant Hill High School team which racked up 46.473 ton miles per gallon. San Ramon High School was next with 38.875, and Las Lomas was fourth with 38.427. Students received their trophies at a victory luncheon Saturday at the Walnut Creek Recreation Center.

THE SAFETY RUN was sponsored by the Genral Petroleum Corporation and the California State Automobile Association, with the assistance of the Contra Costa County Sheriff's Office, the California Highway Patrol and Walnut Creek Police Department.

High individual honors went to Jack Weir of Pleasant Hill High School with a ton mile figure of 30.236. Second was Caroline Coffee of Acalanes High School with 27.198, and third was Shailer Pickon, also of Acalanes with 65.938.

TROPHIES WERE also awarded to the student from each school with the highest actual miles-per-gallon score. These were Glenn Tomlin, San Ramon Valley High; Wesley Waite, Las Lomas High; Val Geissler, Acalanes High; and Jack Weir, Pleasant Hill High. A special award for sports and foreign cars was won by Thom Fergason of Acalanes High School.

Service clubs which cooperated in the project by supplying observers and helping with the arangements were the Lafayette Rotary Club, Optimists Club of Walnut Creek, the Contra Costa County Association of Insurance Agents, and the Rotary Club. Kiwanis Club and Lions Club from Danville.

SALE OF THE 1957 Girl Scout calendars will begin Monday in the central county, and throughout the nation. Mrs. Lyle Williams of Concord makes sure she gets her calendar in advance from Susan Collins of Intermediate Troop 230, Pleasant Hill, and Jeanne Allison, Brownie Troop 237, Pleasant Hill. Ten cents of the 35 cent tariff will go directly into the local troop treasuries. —Sun photo by Elizabeth vander Mark

Sigma Kappas To Celebrate

Contra Costa members of Sigma Kappa sorority will join with Northern California alumnae for their annual Founders Day celebration November 10.

Honoring Sigma Kappa's 82nd year of founding, members will gather for luncheon at the Olympic Club at Lakeside, San Francisco.

Toastmistress and speaker for the program will be Mrs. Bernard Donnelly, an alumna of Sigma Kappa and Dean and Administrative Officer in charge of housing at the University of California.

Contra Costa and Bay Cities Alumnae Board members met recently at the home of Mrs. Robert Maynard on Orchard Road, Orinda.

Mrs. Ralph Miller, Alumnae President, announced the appointment of Mrs. George Richardson and Mrs. H. G. Noack as official delegates to the recently formed Contra Costa Panhellenic Alumnae Association.

Plans were made for the 1956-57 program. On November 13 a Dessert Business meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. James V. Baumgartner, 60 Mountain Avenue, Piedmont.

On Big Game Day in November, a Pre-Game Luncheon, sponsored by Advisory Council, will be held at the Chapter House in Berkeley.

A Husbands Dinner and Cocktail Party is planned for January, and a Rummage Sale will be held in February.

New Roads, Population And a New Motel . . .

By BILL HAYWARD

YGNACIO VALLEY ROAD

Looks very neat and clean with all the new blacktop paving and bright white traffic lane markers. The Walnut Creek Sportsmen's Club hope to be the owners of the northwest corner of Ygnacio and Walnut Boulevard.

They want to build an attractive clubhouse there for neighborhood use, and naturally for the use of their own group. This area is destined to gradually change over toward this type of usage. Medical-Professional areas are scarce in our town . . . Watch this intersection for a well planned development in this direction.

CALIFORNIA POPULATION

July 1, 1956 saw the population of California up to 13,600,000 . . . California has swelled her number some 28.5 per cent since the last census count in 1950 . . . well over the national level of growth of 11 percent. What does California have that attracts so many NEW FRIENDS?

First of all, Californians are FRIENDLY . . . The Golden State has the finest climate in the world for every day living and everyday working. The mountains with their tall pines and winter snow are nearby . . . the surf, the rivers, the bays and ocean . . . the lakes and fascinating parks plus San Francisco and Los Angees BRIGHT LIGHTS . . . the finest schools anywhere . . . Music, art and many other cultural activities . . . all right HERE . . . no wonder JOBS ARE GOING AROUND LOOKING FOR PEOPLE . . . California is the MOST . . .

HOUSING STARTS

Decline in September of 1956 . . . first time since January of 1952. So far this year housing starts have totaled 879,300 . . . a 17 per cent decline from the same period of last year. However keeping up the momentum we will no doubt top the "MILLION" mark again for the eighth straight year. Healthy business this building business!

MR. "REAL ESTATE BUYER" WANT TO KNOW . . . All about the house he wants to buy . . . according to a major eastern Real Estate firm these are the questions asked by potential buyers:

How much are the taxes? How many square feet of living space? What size is the lot? How old is the house? Who built it? What is the cost of heat, light, water per year? What school district is it in? What transportation is available? How far to a shopping area? What are the recreational activities nearby? Who lives next door? What is the smallest down payment I can make?

What are your questions . . . or are they about the same as the above . . . ?

NEW MOTEL JUST WEST of Walnut Creek . . . new units will be completed and ready in about 60 days . . . on the south side of Mt. Diablo Blvd. between Bonita and Clover Lanes. The owner is William S. Drew, the General Contractor is Nick Skuce of Orinda, the name will be . . . HOLIDAY LODGE . . . a very attractively planned development.

Holiday Lodge will have 24 units . . . beautifully furnished and air-conditioned . . . a swimming pool and patio terrace for the use of guests is included. Drew formerly operated the Sky Terrace in Red Bluff, another development by Nick Skuce. December 1 has been set as opening day . . . Ready for the Holidays!!!

Teachers to Hear Music Nov. 25

TICKETS WILL be available from member music teachers and at all music stores in this area.

Nellie Alexander, chairman of the scholarship committee, also announced that a $150 scholarship will be awarded to an East Contra Costa Junior College music major graduate. The recipient must use this assistance to further a teaching career in music.

Details of this plan are being discussed by Mrs. Alexander, Fred Freeman, Itala Gambino, Inerz Barr, Dr. Stevens, dean of personnel and Miss Faye Jasmann, scholarship counselor, both of East Contra Costa Junior College.

Alamo Mothers Fashion Models Choose Apparel

Modeling in the Alamo Mothers' Club's Fashion Show "Heavenly Holidays" at the Diablo Country Club on November 14 will be Mesdames Wallace Cook, Harold Williams and Robert Hart.

Showing clothes for the younger set will be Patricia Buls and Danny Young.

Arrangements are by Mrs. Frank Buck, general chairman and Mrs. Lloyd Kelley, decorations.

"Your support, active and financial, is vital to the success of the show. The proceeds will be used for equipment in both the Alamo Schools," said Mrs. Buck.

Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Willard Reinheimer or Mrs. A. C. Peays. Reservations were made through Mesdames George Wagner, Bradley Bogue, R. W. Morgan, Paul Bohr and John Ashford.

Big Gain in Students Seen In Four Years

Contra Costa County will have at least 120,000 students in public elementary and high schools by 1960, said County Superintendent B. O. Wilson today.

Wilson explained that a compilation of the enrollment forecasts made by the districts indicates a total of 120,299 in kindergarten through high school, compared with 89680 in September.

The area of Richmond Union High School District, Mt. Diablo Unified and Acalanes Union High School Districts, in that order, continue to be the largest in enrollment.

According to the projections the combined "Big Three" will gain 24,178—up from 69,305 to 93,483. Other areas of the county will gain 6441—up from 20,375 to 26,316.

Wilson commented that all areas have made their own forecasts or employed experts to do so except extreme eastern Contra Costa County area.

In liew of projections, current enrollment of schools in the Liberty Union High School area was used in calculating a 1960 forecast for the county.

Club to Hear Mills Professor

A celebrated member of the Mills College faculty will speak before the membership of the Mt. Diablo Mills Club at a meeting November 15 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. George Monheit, 1107 Magnolia Lane, Lafayette.

Guest speaker will be Luis Monguio, author and Professor of Romance Languages at the college.

Monguio, author of two books on Spanish literature and contributor to a number of Spanish and English language magazines, has been at Mills College since 1942.

Since coming to Mills after a career as a Spanish diplomat, the scholar has been a Guggenheim Fellow and has held several honorary and active offices in literatry and scholastic organizations.

Enrollment in the central county area in September, this year, and the calculated enrollment for 1960, are as follows:

Walnut Creek, 3850—5638; Lafayette, 3572—5220; Orinda,2334—3638; Moraga, 83—2000; Acalanes High. 2632—5261; Canyon, 21—26. Alamo, 686—1000; Danville Union, 1422—2371; San Ramon Elementary, 56—65; San Ramon High, 652—970.

Hoiday Preview To Be Seen by Church Ladies

A "Holiday Preview" will be taken by members of the Ladies Guild of the Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church of Orinda at an organizational luncheon Wednesday at the Orinda home of Mrs. Harry Oliphant, 9 La Plaza.

Mrs. Oliphant, general chairman of the affair, will be assisted by Mrs. Mark Shepard, reservation chairman; Mrs. Norman Miller, food chairman; and Mrs. Don Hansen, set-up chairman.

The ladies will be specially entertained by Mrs. Doris Munster, floral decorator of the Claremont Hotel for the past 10 years.

Mrs. Munster's program will include all phases of home decorating for the coming holiday season.

Her programs, according to Mrs. Oliphant, are especially appreciated for their emphasis on materials and containers usually found in most homes.

"Mediterranea"
Provincial that's new — yet old, casual — yet sophisticated, adaptable — yet individual.

For you, who think ahead, a time-enduring livability was the designing aim . . . and for you, who love today, this collection forms a satisfyingly individual back-ground for this time . . . and, surprisingly, the timeless styling and superb quality of the "Mediterranea Collection" is at "less than expected prices."

A conversation-comfortable sofa graced with a "parchment" finish mahogany lamp table, with pierced brass railing surrounding an antiqued pin-seal leather top. The colors of the Mediterranean are reflected in the natural flagstone top of the graciously large, "Old Walnut" cocktail table.

Heritage Henredon

Judith Powell is Married; Chooses Lafayette Home

Ceremony and beauty accompanied the marriage October 21 of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Wilson of Lafayette in Christ the King Catholic Church, Pleasant Hill.

The new bride is the former Judith Powell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brice of 1016 Pleasant Valley Drive, Pleasant Hill.

She graduated last June from Pleasant Hill High School, and has been employed by a bank in San Francisco. Two of her classmates, Marianne McCollom and Myrna Pratt were bridesmaids.

Mr. Wilson, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Wilson, Shagrin Falls, Ohio, recently completed a four-year stint with the U. S. Navy, and is employed by an aircraft mantinenance and engineering company in Oakland.

The couple traveled about the Bay area during their honeymoon, and chose a residence in Lafayette.

Mrs. Raymond Powell was the matron of honor, at the wedding. Albert Dillon of Lafayette was best man, flanked by ushers Raymond Powell, a brother of the bride, and Richard White.

Norm Tuttle Takes Bride Tomorrow

A college romance will be culminated tomorrow morning when Norman Tuttle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Kilburn Tuttle, 35 Honey Hill Road, Orinda, takes a bride.

The bride-to-be is Barbara Evelyn Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hall of Piedmont.

The couple will be joined in a 10 a.m. ceremony in the Piedmont Community Church by the Rev. Holland Burr.

With members of the two families looking on, Barbara will be escorted down the aisle by her father.

Norman met his bride of tomorrow on the campus of the University of California, where he is preparing for a career in law. Barbara is a senior at Cal studying education.

Sigma Phi is Norman's fraternity, and he is also a member of a number of student organizations. His fiancee is a member of Alpha Phi.

Suburban Jrs. Initiated

Honored guests were present at the Lafayette Suburban Juniors Tea and initiation to witness 20 new and a few present members going through the candlelight initiation service.

They were Mrs. Peter R. C. Jarrett, Alameda District junior president; Mrs. George Pedersen, president of the Lafayette Women's Club, and Mrs. R. Don Young, president of the Lafayette Suburban Women's Club.

The Sextette, comprising Mesdames George Yorg, William D. White, John Purvis, Stephen Kahn, Daniel J. Spillane and Orville Jones, accompanist, sang an original ditty on the interesting and busy life of a Suburban Junior.

Special individual cakes were prepared by Mrs. Kenneth Alexander and her committee:

Also keeping the members very active are plans for the 2nd Annual Bazaar, to be held December 1 in the Veterans Memorial Building, Lafayette.

Tickets are now available and are being sold for $1 for adults and 50 cents for children.

Therapy Center Unit Fetes New Members at Tea

The lovely home of Mrs. Edward Ageno, 3361 McGraw Lane, Lafayette, was the setting recently for the Membership Tea given by the Larks Unit of Mt. Diablo Therapy Center.

Greeting more than 100 guests at the door was Lark President Mrs. Ralph Ligon.

This annual event, to honor new and associate members, was chairmaned by Mrs. Sherman Sibley, with all active Larks serving as hostesses.

New members so honored were the Mesdames J. E. Adams, Howard Hearn, J. E. Lateana, J. L. Pingree, Harmon Quarrels, A. D. Robertson, Frank Teverbaugh, Gerald Oulton, Loy Chamberlain and W. R. McLennon.

Locals Help On Children' Home Bazaa

The Junior Alliance of the Lincoln Home for Children has been busy planning its Christmas Carnival Bazaar, to be held at the Sailboat House on Lake Merritt from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. next Friday.

With many of the Alliance members residing locally, much of the work and production was conducted in this area.

Mrs. Kenneth Mirov, chairman of the bazaar has been asissted by Mrs. H. B. Gardner, Mrs. John Mortarotti and Mrs. Philip Oyer, all of Orinda.

Lafayette matrons helping with the sale of hundreds of gift items are Mrs. Glenn Heltne, Mrs. Robert Haaf and Mrs. Brentt Girdler.

Mrs. Harold Weatherbe of Walnut Creek designed and constructed the decorations, aided by Mrs. John Thomas.

Towhee Tinsel Time Will Feature 21 Group Exhibits

A wide variety of table trees and table settings, 21 exhibits in all, will compete for top honors during Towhee Tinsel Time, the fifth annual Tea and Bazaar of the Towhee Unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center.

The affair will be held November 27 at the Diablo Country Club, according to General Chairman Mrs. William Phelan Jr.

Exhibits in the two categories will be set up by many of the competing organizations all vying for the sweepstakes honors to be decided by Mrs. Alma Blakesley, Miss Faye Stewart and Norman Roth, the judges.

Setting up the exhibits for east-of-the-tunnel units will be:

Mrs. F. Roy Powers, Alamo Women's Club; Mrs C B Gouert Jr, Walnut Creek Junior Women's Club; Mrs. Thomas Kling, Mayten Branch of the Children's Hospital; Mrs. Jane McGeehon, Walnut Branch of the Children's Hospital; Mrs. E. J. Molloy, Laurel Junior Branch of the Children's Hospital;

Mrs. B. Duloney, Humpty Dumpty Chapter of the Children's Home Society; Mrs. T. J. Clark, Heidi Chapter of the Children's Home Society; Mrs. P. Simons, Walnut Creek Garden Club; Mrs. H. L. Chappelle, Parent's Club of the CCC Retarded Children;

Mrs. H. P. Smith, Seabury Club; Mrs. W. N. Hambleton, Jack 'n Jill Nursery School; Mrs. Donald C. Allen, Linnits of the Therapy Center; Mrs. Allen Griffin, Linnet Juniors; Mrs. John Den-Dulk, Tanagers; Mrs. Robert Cook, Hummingbirds;

Mrs. Robert Martin, Robins; Mrs. Robert Schroder, Flickers; Mrs. D. H. Humphrey, Mary Doyle Unit; Mrs. Paul Kapci, Larks; Mrs. Leonard Clevenger, Flamingos; and Mrs. Elinor Warren, Starlings.

Exhibit co-chairmen will be Mrs. John Raley and Mrs. William McLaren.

Christmas Items to Grace Holidaze Bazaar Booths

Stuffed animals, clown dolls, table decorations, aprons and place mats are among the items being readied for the Holidaze Bazaar planned by the Crest View Junior Women's Club of Pleasant Hill.

It will be held on November 10 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Walnut Creek Masonic Temple, Mt. Diablo Boulevard and Locust Street.

Tickets are now on sale for 50 cents. They may be obtained at the door the day of the bazaar. Ticket entitles the bearer to refreshments of dessert and coffee.

Proceeds will purchase equipment for the Loan Closet of hospital and sick room equipment.

The club has accumulated a store of wheel chairs, hospital beds, walkers, canes, etc., which they loan free of charge to anyone in the central Contra Costa area for as long as they are needed.

The need for this sort of equipment exceeds the supply, said Chairman Mrs. Jack Sly of Cordelia Way, Walnut Creek.

The bazaar has been designed to supply unusual gift items.

A gift booth has such things as jeweled beer openers and sequined match boxes among its store of handmade trinkets. Doll clothes, stuffed animals, bean bags and blocks are some of the items to be found at the toy booth.

Fancy candles and Christmas table decorations will be some of the things filling the Christmas booth, while the plant booth will feature all sorts of potted plants, ivy and bulbs.

Drama to Light Tuesday Meeting Of Diablo Forum

Dramatic readings by a young actress will highlight the meeting next Tuesday of the Diablo Tuesday Morning Forum.

Interpreting a contemporary play at the 10:30 a.m. meeting at the Diablo Country Club will be Miss Carol Brumm, a former University of California actress and featured performer with the Straw Hat Theater.

Miss Brumm, who starred in many university productions, is a founding member of the Straw Hat group and has served as its secretary and costume director.

A coffee social at 10 a.m. will precede the program. The public is invited and tickets may be obtained at the door of the country club or from any Forum board member.

Mrs. Samuel Abbot Jr. is chairman of the refreshment committee. She will be assisted by Mrs. C. W. Koch. Mrs. T. J. Ready Jr. and Mrs. William Boyd will serve as hostesses for the day.

Decorations will be arranged by Mrs. Reginald Biggs. Miss Brumm will be introduced by Mrs. Stanley Friden. Mrs. William Hale Jr. is coordinating chairman of the Forum.

Silver Chalice Plans Rummage

Silver Chalice Chapter 590, Order of Eastern Star, will hold a rummage sale tomorrow from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., in the 600 block on Railroad Avenue, Pittsburg.

It will be in the building formerly occupied by a restaurant.

General chairman is Ruth Binker. She will be aided by Dorothy Alvin.

Women Set Hats, 'Snow,' For Show

"Top Hats and Snowballs" will set the theme for the gay fall fashion show and luncheon of the Orinda Woman's Club next Thursday, at the Orinda Country Club.

Dashing sports togs from Kell's and beautiful party dresses from Virginia Hammonds will be displayed by Power's models before the 78 members and their guests.

Tiny figures in bouffant skirts perched on cocktail glasses and miniature skiers gliding down the center of the table will further carry out the theme of the affair.

The club has already reported a sell-out for the event, which is one of the highlights of the fall season.

Working far into the night on the luncheon and show is Chairman Mrs. James Byers.

She is being assisted by Mrs. Carl Schroeder, who is in charge of decorations; Mrs. Elliott Rose, Mrs. Ernest Haynes, and Mrs. Filson Dorland, donations;

Mrs. E. F. Nielsen and Mrs. R. A. Soderstrom, favors; Mrs. R. L. Grant, publicity; Mrs. Paul Gregg, programming; Mrs. Edward Winthers and Mrs. Edward Patterson, reservations.

Proceeds from the day will be donated to the Orinda Library Fund.

Flower Show Is Tomorrow

The Chrysanthemum show, "Autumn Rainbow" will be held tomorrow and Sunday in the Walnut Creek Civic Center recreation building.

Sponsor is the Chrysanthemum Study Club of the East Bay.

Hours tomorrow will be from 2 p.m. to 9, and on Sunday, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Amateur growers may exhibit specimen blooms, potted plants and flower arrangements. They will be submitted today from 4 p.m. to 10 p.m., and tomorrow from 8 a.m. to 9:30 a.m.

Ribbons and trophies will be awarded.

Wallace Group Cites Support, Lists Q and A

Headquarters of C. R. Wallace, candidate for supervisor in the Second District, reported yesterday that "informed polls" indicate growing support for his candidacy.

F. S. Clough, spokesman for the Citizens' Committee for Better Government, listed a number of questions "frequently asked" and gave answers, as follows:

"Q. How did Wallace happen to get in the race in the first place?

"A. WALLACE did not seek the job—the job sought him. After interviewing all candidates, the committee selected Wallace without a single dissenting vote.

"Q. Is the Citizens' Committee another pressure group?

"A. To the extent that is fighting for better government in this county it is a pressure group, just as are 'we the people' who are fighting for the same objective. It is a pressure group in no other way.

"Q. WHO IS BACKING Wallace? Where did the money come from for his campaign?

"A. Wallace is backed by a committee which has now expanded to well over 200 residents. Every cent contributed to his campaign has come from individual contributions in amounts ranging from $1 to $100.

"Q. Wallace is retired. Does this mean that if elected he will not work too hard at the job?

"A. QUITE THE CONTRARY. He is 59, in vigorous mental and physical health, and after serving his country for 30 years in the Marine Corps he would like to serve the people again as a civilian. He intends to give full time to this public trust. The job is too big for anything other than full-time attention.

"Q. Can we talk to Wallace? Will he listen to our problems?

"A. In his military career Wallace has had to work with government representatives and civilians. He knows how to listen, evaluate and get results. He has mapped a regular schedule of visits to each community."

EBMUD Report Cites Progress, Finance Plans

"Healthy gains in net value and continued reduction of bonded debt" were cited by the East Bay Municipal Utility District in the 1955-56 annual report released today.

EBMUD President Louis J. Breuner termed the fiscal year "a period of major development for the Utility District and Special District No. 1.

"The scope of our service, size of facilities and net worth of these citizen-owned utilities all were increased during the 12-month period," he said.

Combined net value of water service and sewage disposal systems reached $156,348,263. Total bonded debt for both systems originally $100,500,000, stands at $58,570,000 at close of fiscal year.

The Utility District made a five cent cut in tax rate, the fifteenth tax reduction in EBMUD history. A two-cent reduction was made for Special District No. 1 (sewage disposal system).

"The record set by the Utility District during the past fiscal year," President Breuner stated, "tells more than mere advancement in all activities. It shows that the Utility District has continued to progress in meeting the increasing demands of our water service system."

He added, "Sound business practices over the years have allowed the EBMUD to make investments for system improvements from operating revenues; at the same time systematically to reduce the bonded debt.

"District bond issues have been utilized in the past solely to purchase or construct primary units of the water system. It is our intention to limit future bond issues to these same purposes—to create the dams, aqueducts and terminal storage necessary in the years ahead."

Thurston Lauds Wallace Conduct

Claiming that "statesmanship" is the deciding factor in the current campaign, William H. Thurston, chairman of the Orinda Association's Civic Affairs Committee, this week reaffirmed his support of C. R. Wallace for supervisor in the 2nd Supervisorial District.

In making this announcement Thurston said, "As this heated campaign has progressed I have watched very carefully just how each candidate has conducted himself in meeting the important issues facing each of them.

"Throughout this campaign I have yet to find an occasion in which C. R. Wallace has acted in other than a statesmanlike manner," he continued.

The civic affairs official added that this "statesmanship" is the "distinguishing difference between the two candidates for supervisor."

Nielsen Tells What He'd Do As Supervisor

"In 10 years of community work I've run into too many problems that could not be effectively solved on the local level. As supervisor I will be able to work directly on those problems—that's why I'm a candidate for the job," Mel Nielsen of Lafayette said yesterday.

A supervisorial candidate in District 2, Nielsen has served as commissioner of the Lafayette Fire District and of the Lafayette Water District during the past 10 years. as well as committeeman for the Boy Scouts and commander of American Legion Post 517.

He has also acted as chairman of the Heart Fund, the March of Dimes and the TB X-Ray Drive and as president of the Lafayette Rotary Club and the Contra Costa County Rotary Clubs, director of the Lafayette Chamber of Commerce and an official of the Red Cross.

"PLANNING is the kind of problem I refer to," Nielsen explained. "We have too often failed to secure proper planning and zoning by strictly local effort.

"As supervisor I will maintain regular hours at a local office so that I can keep in close touch with zoning issues as they develop. Secondly, I will make every effort to have a county planning commissioner attend local meetings so that he may fairly represent residents"

Nielsen pointed out that he has already warned of "dangers inherent in the new low, medium and high density zones provided in the Lafayette master plan."

"THE SUPERVISOR will be responsible for seeing that developments within these zones are carefully examined it we are to continue to grow in the pattern we desire," he said.

Nielsen has also taken a stand on the Shepherd Canyon Freeway route, calling for a review of Route 2 by the state to consider changes carrying the road directly through the hills into Indian Valley.

He went on to discuss the problem of police protection. "After working for the sheriff's substation which will be built in Lafayette, I feel that a similar office should be set up in Danville to serve San Ramon Valley," Nielsen said.

He said he places flood control high on the list of projects facing Contra Costa County. "Flood prevention will remain in the hands of the county if the proposed bond issue in Zone 3B fails in December," Nielsen added.

NIELSEN SAID the county needs a long-range program of secondary road maintenance and construction.

"On another level there is a definite need for the same kind of sustained program for parks and recreational facilities. Obtaining park sites like Briones Valley is just the beginning; we must schedule year-by-year improvements," he said.

In closing, Nielsen said he wishes to extend thanks to "the many friends who have given time and funds on behalf of my campaign."

The Nielsen family—Mel and Cita and their children, Lance, 13, and Shiela, 11—have lived in Lafayette for 11 yars. Nielsen is the owner of Lafayette Tire Service.

Demo Quarters Are in Concord

Volunteers from more than 13 Democratic Clubs in the central and eastern county are staffing the Concord Democratic headquarters, 2106 Salvio Street, Mrs. Pat Silva, president of the Contra Costa Democratic Women's Club, announces.

The headquarters is the local center for the candidacies of Adlai Steveson and Estes Keefauver in the presidential race, Senator Richard Richards for the U. S. Senate, Dr. H. R. "Bob" Quinney for Congress, State Senator George Miller Jr. for reelection, and Russell Koch for Assembly, 10th District.

In addition to her own group, Mrs. Silva listed the following Democractic Clubs and presidents as supplying "volunteer poliiticians" for the campaign:

North Concord Democratic Club, Paul Underhill; Vine Hill Democratic Women's Club, Mrs. Tom Fuller; Orinda Democratic Women's Club; Mrs. Grace Hanks; Concord Valley Democratic Club, Frank Hoff.

Vine Hill Democratic Club, Fred Marlar; Central Democratic Club, John Hopkins; East Contra Costa Democratic Club, Helene Page; Lafayette Democratic Club, Mrs. Jane Benney.

Local Teachers Endorse School Bond Proposition

Local high school teachers through their association, the Acalanes Education Association, encourage public approval of Proposition 2 in the coming election.

According to the teacher group, Proposition 2 provides for the issuance by the state of $100 million in bonds to provide loans and grants to school districts for school sites, construction and equipment and housing and equipment for education of physically handicapped and mentally retarded children.

Robert Pape, Acalanes Education Association president, observed that Proposition 2 will "enable the state to help school districts provide necessary buildings."

Pape pointed out that growing local school enrollments are reflected in state statistics which show that elementary school enrollments will jump from 1,916,000 to 2,345,000 by 1960. Proportionate increases are expected in high schools and junior colleges.

Proponents of Proposition 2 have argued that the amount sought in state bonds is the minimum amount needed between 1957 and 1959 to keep "California boys and girls off the streets and in schools."

The state funds are available to districts which have used all available funds and voted their maximum of bonds and still do not have enough schools and no way of providing them.

Kuchel Drive Meets Demo Suit

The executive board of the Lafayette Democratic Club issued a statement, following a meeting last Saturday, protesting "the tactics used by supporters of the Republican candidate for the U.S. Senate, Thomas Kuchel, in his campaign in Contra Costa County."

Suit was filtd in Superior Court by Attorney John Knox of Richmond on Monday on behalf of Roger Kent, chairman of the California State Democratic Central Committee, and Richard Haber, chairman of the Contra Costa County Democratic Central Committee.

Knox stated that Charles J. Wright, signer of the disputed mailing, and David Calfee, Republican chairman for Kuchel in Contra Costa County, are charged with "foisting upon the voters of this county fraudulent and deceptive literature designed to create the impression that Kuchel has the endorsement of Democratic organizations, when in reality, State Senator Richard Richards is the Democratic candidate, and the only candidate for United States Senate to have the endorsement of Democratic Party organizations in Contra Costa County."

The statement of thhe Lafayette Democratic Club continued: "A brief check of Lafayette and Orinda precinct lists reveals that at least one of the purported Democrats for Kuchel is a registered Republican, and several others are not even residents of these communities. This mailing is a deliberate attempt to cause confusion and to steal votes from the Democratic candidate for the U.S. Senate, Richard Richards."

Members of the Lafayette Democratic Club executive board are James Benney, Sharonn Gittelsohn, Richard Alpen, Sylvia Nesbitt and Lyn McKee.

Kuchel Booster Claims Demos Aid Campaign

U.S. Senator Thomas H. Kuchel's campaign for reelection is receiving aid from the Democrats for Kuchel committee throughout Contra Costa County, Betty Irwin, county co-chairman of Kuchel's campaign, announced today.

Mrs. Irwin commented, "Voters who have studied Senator Kuchel's record know that there is no substitute for the experience he has gained in 20 years of service to California and the nation."

Democrats for Kuchel committee leaders were listed by Mrs. Irwin as including:

Sylvia K. Brown, Betty J. Campbell, John M. Campbell, John A. Cutler, Patricia Cutler, Mrs. Betty A. Devlin, A. R. Devlin, Mrs. Alfred Leloy Sr. and Mrs. Renee Spindler of Lafayette; Charles Coburn, Robert Galbraith and Charles L. Smith of Orinda; and Ray Stenst and Virginia Stenst of Walnut Creek.

Taxpayer Group Hits 2-County Transit Plan

Chairman Ted Barcelon of the Acalanes Taxpayers Committee announced yesterday that after a careful study his group is opposing Proposition A, which would provide for the establishment of an East Bay transit district.

The Taxpayers Committee, an affiliate of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers Association, came to this conclusion "because it felt that the district act was bady drafted and did not clearly provide for service for the central county area," Barcelon said.

Statements in the resolution of the Committee of 50 opposing the transit district were referred to by the taxpayers' group.

The Acalanes Taxpayers Committee is composed of representatives of taxpaying interests in Orinda, Moraga and Lafayette.

Pedder Tours P H Area

Jack Pedder, candidate for state senator, will carry Pleasant Hill," was the prediction of Jack Gillan of Poshard Avenue, Pleasant Hall, at the end of seven house meetings in that area attended by the candidate.

Seizing the opportunity to continue his criticism of his opponent's crusade for the Southern Crossing Bill, Pedder stated, "Now a firm of engineers hired by our Department of Public Works has reported that the southern crossing is not feasible."

The incumbent senator has been the leader for the Southern Crossing Bill in the Senate in spite of the opposition of his Assembly colleagues from Lafayette and Richmond.

Pedder stated that his opponent was not representing either the commuters or the industry of Contra Costa County in his fight for the southern crossing.

"Carrying water on both shoulders has been the position of our incumbent Senator in both voting for the southern crossing and also for nine county transit," stated Pedder.

"An analysis of rapid transit indicates no need for a southern crossing," he continued. "What my opponent has been doing may be good politics but darn poor government," Pedder concluded.

Kuchel Backers Deride Charges

Democratic charges of "fraudulent and deceptive" tactics by supporters of U.S. Senator Thomas Kuchel (R) were derided this week by the Contra Costa Kuchel Campaign Committee.

On behalf of David Calfee, campaign chairman for Kuchel in Contra Costa County, theh committee said:

"Senator Kuchel has the active support of many thousands of registered Democrats thoughout the state of California on the basis of his fine record in the U.S. Senate as an independent voter.

"Many prominent Democrats, including Manchester Boddy, Senator Kuchel's Democratic opponent of two years ago, and Edwin J. Mattox, past state president of the Young Democrats of California, are actively campaigning among Democrats in support of Tom Kuchel.

"Democrat bosses are seriously worried about this defection in their ranks and have taken the position that it is unlawful and fraudulent for Democrats to form committes of Democrats to support a Republican candidate.

"In Contra Costa County Charles J. Wright, a registered Democrat, has organized a committee of over 1000 Democrats who are working for the reelection of SenatorKuchel under the name, 'Contra Costa County Democratic Committee to Reelect U.S. Senator Thomas H. Kuchel.' "

Wright said: "Extreme care was used in screening the voters who offered to serve on the Democratic cammittee for the reelection of Senator Kuchel. To the best of our knowledge each is a registered Democrat and has signed a sponsor certificate for Senator Kuchel."

Council Cites Non-Political Role of Scouts

A recent letter addressed to a number of scout parents by a citizen of Contra Costa County endorsing a candidate for a supervisorial position was sent out without the knowledge of the local Boy Scout organization, according to a press release this week from the Mt Diablo Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

The council release was in reference to a letter sent out by the committee for Mel Nielsen for supervisor of District 2.

"The Boy Scouts of America as an organization does not endorse any candidate, regardless of his or her worthiness," the council stated. "It is absolutely non-political.

"'The organization is a character building and citizenship training movement which is vitally concerned with every citizen going to the polls and voting for the candidate of his choice.

"In line with this policy, several million Boy Scouts will deliver door knob hangers to every home in America the Saturday preceding the election, urging all the citizens of the country to go to the poles on election day and cast their ballot. Over 176,000 such hangers will be distributed in the area of the Mt. Diablo Council."

Girl Scouts to Begin Calendar Sales Monday

Contra Costa Girl Scouts from seven districts of Diablo Valley next Monday, will begin an annual calendar sale.

Colorful calendars depicting young Girl Scouts throughout the nation in scouting endeavors are sold each year to raise funds.

Proceeds from this year's sale will be used for developments at the two high Sierra Girl Scout summer camps to improve and expand existing facilties, develop new trails and establish additional poison oak control.

A portion of the funds remains with the neighborhood troops in order for them to purchase supplies and crafts for their work.

Girl Scouts' products chairman, Mrs. Roy Price of Walnut Creek, is in charge of the calendar sale this year.

District chairmen from Alamo, Danville, Lafayette, Orinda, Pleasant Hill, Walnut Creek and Ygnacio Valley spearhead sales in local areas for the door-to-door campaign with neighborhood troop leaders.

Playshop Curton To Open Friday On 'Double Door'

The mystery of an immense fortune of an old New York family will be dramatically related to the audience when the Lafayette Playshop opens its fall season with the melodrama "Double Door," by Elizabeth McFadden, next Friday in the Acalanes High School little theater.

In this first of four performances of the tension-filled drama, the curtain will rise at 8:30 p.m. on the scene of the second floor living room of the famous old Van Bret mansion on Fifth Avenue, New York City.

This is the home where old Jacob Van Bret had established his fortune and then died.

Here, his eldest daughter Victoria Van Bret, played by Lafayette Playshop actress Thais Ackerman, rules the home, the family and her associates with venemous cruelty.

Around this despicable character, Director Lloyd Sisler has cast Joy Merrick, Ed Fosdahl, Lloyd Holton, Kay Loorz, George Becker, Sherman Coakley, Roy Fisher, Ada McDaniel, Charles Bosley and Phyllis Wysling as the people subjected to and baffled by Victoria's tyranny.

Additional performances will be given at Acalanes on November 10, 16 and 17.

Ticket sales are under way for all showings and tickets may be obtained by calleg YE 4-8382.

Net proceeds from the play, as from all Playshop productions, will be donated to the development of a scholarship to be given to the most qualified local graduating student of drama or the other arts.

Soroptimists Have Quiz on 'School Days'

"School days" constituted one portion of an informal quiz at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Soroptimist International of Lafayette-Orinda at El Nido Tuesday.

The quiz was conducted by Miss Jane Patorio and Mrs. Grayliss Vossler, who were in charge of the day's program. The decor included dunce-caps, which were handed to members who "flunked" on questions relating to schools and to the members' businesses.

The latter portion of the quiz dealt with correctly identifying certain slogans with the Soroptimist members' businesses.

Mrs. Esther Marchant, president of the unit, opened the meeting.

Next Tuesday at 12:10 p.m. the unit will hold its monthly business meeting at El Nido.

Drivers Needed For Local Service

Do you have some spare time, and a desire to help people?

A national agency in Walnut Creek urgenly needs volunteers to act as motor service drivers. A valid drivers license is the only requirement, plus 4 hours a week of spare time.

Volunteers may obtain more information by phoning or visiting the Volunteer Bureau of the Walnut Creek area, at 1640 Main St., YE 4-0424, open Mon-Fri., 9 a.m. to noon.

PEDESTRIAN RIGHTS

Many motorists seem to forget that in the eyes of the law a pedestrian has just as much right to walk on the highway as a motorist has to drive on it, says the California State Automobile Association. There must be equal respect for the rights of each if accidents are to be avoided.

Earl Smith Will Tell Contractors Of Russ Methods

Earl W. Smith, El Cerrito, immediate past president of the National Association of Home Builders and chairman of the United States Home Builders Delegation to Russia last June, will address the membership of the General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County and their wives at a meeting Thursday at the El Nido Restaurant in Lafayette, according to Harold E. Parker, Martinez, president.

"Earl Smith, as chairman of the housing delegation to Russia has assumed the obligation of conveying to the American people as well as the home builders his personal reactions and the reactions of the delegation of the National Association of Home Builders who visited Russia this year," Parker said.

"We feel that through the utilization of pre-stressed concrete necessitated by the climatic conditions in Russia there is a great deal that the American home builder can learn from the Russian methods," Parker added.

Italian Comedy Playing in S.F.

Currently being presented at the Playhouse at Beach and Hyde Streets is Eric Bentley's translation of "Right You Are," the exciting comedy of human relations by Italy's foremost playwright, Luigi Pirandello.

The talented cast includes Jane Steckle, Verona Nash, Lynne Minto, Thomas Erhart, Louis Brew, and Tom Sullivan.

Tickets at $1.75 for Friday and Saturday performances at 8:30 are on sale at Sherman, Clay, City of Paris and the Playhouse. Call PRospect 5-4426 for reservations.

Robert Sarvey Seeks EBMUD Board Position

Robert E. Sarvey, East Oakland businessman, is a candidate for the Board of Directors of the East Bay Municipal Utility District, from Ward 5, in next Tuesday's election.

He opposes A. C. Carrington, incumbent. Although the director from Ward 5 must be a resident of that ward, the balloting Tuesday will be by voters thoughout utility district.

Ward 5 comprises Alameda and part of the East Oakland areas of the EBMUD.

Sarvey, a resident of East Oakland and a well-known merchant in that area, stated that a group of Ward 5 residents had pledged their backing in urging him to seek the post.

"In seeking this office, my concern is to further good public relations, establish better labor relations and in general serve the interests of the many—the million users of the publicly owned body," he said.

Sarvey is a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post 1010; the Moose, Eagles and the Masonic fraternity.

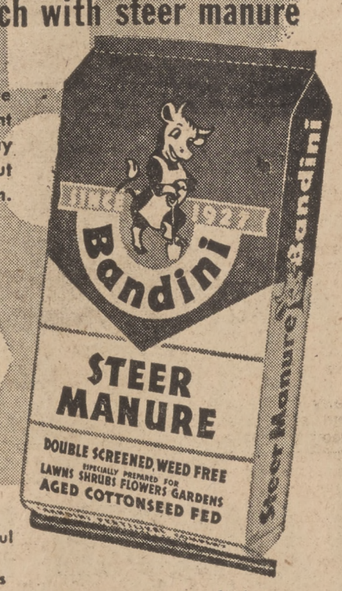
WHY PLANT WEEDS when you mulch with steer manure

Bandini Steer Manure is taken from cement floors—contains no stray weed seeds to sprout in your lawn or garden.

NO WEEDS
NO JUNK
NO WATER



Bandini Steer Manure is passed under a powerful magnet to remove dangerous metal objects and is then double-screened to remove straw and other foreign particles often found in manure. Heat treatment removes excess water—assures you full value. Always insist on Bandini—the safest, finest of all mulches. At your nursery or garden supply dealer.

New Studies Stir Montecito Pupils

A new introduction to the study of geography has stimulated much student interest in Mr. Norton's 5th grade class at Montecito School.

A committee of pupils has assembled a display of geography of the world in the classroom.

The study of American folklore is currently occupying the language program of Mrs. Hoskins' combined 4th and 5th grade class.

Each pupil is doing research on American folktales and is to tell the story he finds to the class. When possible the children also are bringing records of their stories.

Mrs. Hoskins brought a record of "Johnny Appleseed;" Dennis Cummings brought "Casey Jones;" and Richard Fisher brought "Pecos Bill."

Diablo Speakers Exchange Ideas With LaRinda

At a recent meeting at the Las Palmas Hotel the Diablo Toastmasters Club 398 and the Larinda Toastmasters "exchanged" speakers and ideas.

The joint meeting heard Gene Busse of Larinda speak on juvenile delinquency and Vincent Gates also of Larinda on public relations. Speakers for Diablo Toastmasters were Al Ingalls, who explained the multiple listing service for realtors, and John Phillips who spoke in opposition to proposition 4, the oil initiative on the November ballot.

The Diablo Toastmasters Club meets every Thursday evening, according to John Saemann of the club's public relations committee.

Parkside Patter

By MAE HARRISON, YE 5-1254

Hi, folks!

Know something? She's here . . . the NEW little Holtrop. Her name is SUSAN JEAN . . . 19 inches long; 7 pounds, 12½ ounces; arrived at Concord Community Hospital October 3 at 4:40 p.m.

Parents are Clare and Marian Holtrop. She joins 7-year old sister, Janet, who kept saying that she wanted a baby sister.

Congratulations to the Holtrops.

Timing their visit just right are the R. G. Meyerings of Fresno. (Marian's aunt and uncle.) They had hoped the newcomer would arrive during their visit.

The Women's Society of the Presbyterian Church held a general meeting luncheon October 18. Mrs. Siegel, a missionary on furlough from Thailand, spoke on work in South East Asia.

One of the neighborhood ladies, Mrs. Pearl Wolgast and Harland Harrison were the guests of Mrs. Florence Beattie at the luncheon.

Pearl reported a most interesting afternoon.

Mrs. Beattie, chairman of the decorating committee, had the Chinese theme.

A very large crowd enjoyed the delicious food and informative program.

Sallie Hoff was in the midst of Demo doings October 12, in Antioch and Pittsburg. She was present expressly for the purpose of representing Democratic Congressional candidate, Dr. Bob Quinney.

Governor Frank G. Clement of Tennessee on his "whistle stop" campaign for Democratic candidates, came in to Antioch to open the new headquarters.

He spoke to a large crowd there and then to Pittsburg and again back to Antioch at a luncheon given in his honor at the El Rio Hotel.

Sallie gave an impromptu speech for Dr. Quinney at both Antioch and Pittsburg.

She reported a delicious lunch at El Rio.

Buena Vista's Carnival Caravan was October 13. It was lots of fun . . . the men were dashing with their bright-colored shirts, sashes, mustaches; the women very Gypsy in flowing skirts, golden earrings . . . Romany music played while boys and girls had their fortunes told, or purchased grab bags.

And how about the rides on the fire engine with Joe De Bois as driver?

Another most mystifying act was Ron Brown's Magic. He was just about as clever as a magician can get! One of his feats was producing a live guinea pig from a gaily colored silk scarf!

All the folks who worked to make the affair a success certainly did a wonderful job.

Nick Zouzounis celebrated his twelfth birthday October 14. It was a smorgasboard-swim party.

Guests for a wonderful afternoon included Jimmy Dunlap, Michael Daniels, Kent Hancock, and Nick's sisters, Adrienne and Jo Ann.

Letters to The Editor

Dear Editor:

As reported, the State Legislature is seriously considering establishing a 65 mph speed limit as a means of reducing traffic accidents.

Without for one moment questioning the motives for such enactment, it is my sincere belief that an arbitrary speed limit will not achieve the desired end.

There is a better way which, if tried, should not only make California the safest state in the Union, but which would set an example for traffic safety throughout the country.

BEFORE GOING into that, let us look at the record. Michigan recently enacted a 65 mph speed limit (previously no speed limit) as a move to cut the traffic toll; yet according to latest reports there has been no lessening of accidents.

Furthermore, it has been intimated that the cost of enforcement would be prohibitive besides overtaxing available manpower.

On the other hand, it has been reliably reported that those states which have increased speed limits have achieved commensurate reduction in accidents!

Many factors contribute to accidents. Not the least of these is indifferent licensing of drivers which permits the mentally incompetent to share the highways with the legion of responsible drivers.

HOWEVER, IT is not the purpose here to dwell on these factors, but to state the case for driver education and control of speed that will win universal support by the majority of drivers.

Now, unbiased investigation will show that the great majority of accidents occur within the defined legal speed limits. That being the case, "speeding" as that term is commonly used has not been the main factor in collisions. Rather, the main factor has been uncontrolled speed, meaning excessive speed under given traffic conditions. And that implies anything from one mph up.

The fact that many serious accidents occur in urban areas in which speed limits are clearly posted presents reasonable proof that arbitrary speed limits of themselves do not prevent accidents.

The best that can be said for them is that they are a deterring force; that, however, is not enough. What we want is something that will cut accidents to the irreducible minimum!

AND RIGHT HERE, the answer has been screaming at traffic control bodies for the better part of a generation. The miracle is that, so far, no one seems to have thought of it. For the answer can be summed up in three words: Education in speed.

In most states, an applicant for a driver's license is subjected to what to all practical purposes is a routine test. He is required to show conversance with the state traffic code (with literacy assumed), is given an eye test, and in some states (as California and New York) is required to drive a few blocks in a city at speeds of 25 mph unless otherwise posted.

If that cursory driving test satisfies the examiner, he is then legally licensed to take his chances on the open highway.

To the best of the writer's belief, not one state in the Union has ever proposed, much less initiated, a program wherein drivers are instructed in handling a car at high traffic speeds.

Yet, if such a program were initiated, along with a more careful screening of drivers for mental fitness, the resultant reduction in traffic accidents should be a little short of amazing.

BECAUSE, a driver who knows how to handle a car at high speeds, and who knows what to do in emergencies, is not likely to have accidents.

In this connection, teenagers in Oakland have been begging for drag strips which, by all laws of logic, would be schools for safe driving at high speeds.

Legally established and given police supervision, these drag strips would also be "schools" for adult drivers.

They could be provided with the common traffic "hazards" and standard highway markers and so would provide a check on an applicant's responses to emergency.

THAT, HOWEVER, would not be enough. Through cooperation with the press (which so far has dramatized speed to the exclusion of other factors) there should be initiated an intensive and consistent educational compaign in the courtesies of the road.

As for speed per se, it is this writer's belief that the safest speed limit is no speed limit!

That is not to be construed as a case for unbridled speed, but for controlled speed.

To cite a specific example, traffic should be permitted to flow at prevailing cruising speeds on divided lane expressways, but with control zones where reduced speed is necessary for safety.

On the other hand, winding roads such as the Crow Canyon Road should be posted at the maximum safe limit, and enforced.

Speed limits should be established by highway engineers.

A traffic code should have for its end one thing and one thing only: safety for everybody and not the collecting of fines except for wanton violation of the laws of safety.

In the final analysis, good traffic control means moving traffic at the highest speed consistent with the public safety. Where high speeds are safe, then high speeds should prevail; where unsafe, slower speeds should be posted — and enforced.

Such a code would be fair and so would win support by all responsible drivers.

Sincerely,
ANDREW RYLANDER
900 Jeffrey Lane,
Walnut Creek

(Rylander adds separately that he has been driving since 1903, covering all sections of the U.S. and has been involved in only two minor accidents, for which the other drivers assumed full blame. He also said he has received two parking tickets in his experience.)

Observer Corps Reward Watchers

At a meeting of the Walnut Creek Ground Observer Corps October 23 at the National Guard Armory special awards were given to 38 sky-watchers.

Mrs. Isabelle E. Salisbury of Lafayette, post supervisor, presented Chester Bekins, chief observer, who introduced the guests.

Capt. Robert Curran made the presentation of awards and Sgt. Maine the Certificates.

Mrs. Vivian L. Whitehead of Walnut Creek was honored for having served 250 hours. She received a Bar to add to a Medal previously awarded. Mrs. Barbara Burton was also honored for having served 250 hours in GOC administration.

Receiving the 100 hour Medal award were Chester T. Bekins, Ernest and Charlotte Cook, Bob W. Dodd, Byron, Esther and Janice Foreman, Louise W. Gavey, Therese Luck and MaDonna E. Myers, all of Walnut Creek; Bernice W. Jones, Robert G. Smits and Hugh B. Webster of Lafayette; and George and Gladys Borden, and Jean Brower of Orinda.

Those who received Wings for 25 hours of service were David and Mary Carreiro, Robert and Dorothy Denton, Catherine R. Donahue. James H. Ewell, Dorothy M. Gearey, Charles and Myrtle Guntz, Waldo R. Hardie, Richard R. Kreiberg, Michael K. Rich.

Isabelle P. Swain, and Richard I. Thomas of Walnut Creek; Margaret E. Epprecht, Charles A. Lindberg and Arleen I. McLane of Pleasant Hill; Clare and Eleanor Gould, and Ruth Diem of Lafayette; and Margaret Wilson of Oakland.

Why the Oil Conservation Act will KEEP GAS PRICES DOWN

● Why does Oil Conservation mean gasoline price protection for motorists?

● Why will Proposition 4 the Oil Conservation Act, help keep gas prices down?

—Because conservation of California's irreplaceable oil resources means stopping waste in the production of oil. It means getting every last drop of oil from the ground that it is possible to get by modern, scientific recovery methods.

—Because Proposition 4—by providing urgently needed Oil Conservation legislation—will double the production of oil from California fields.

—Because a plentiful supply of low-cost California oil is the best possible guarantee against drastic increases in the service-station price of gas.

IF YOU DRIVE A CAR, you are vitally concerned over the price of gasoline.

There are three pressures operating today in the direction of increased prices of gasoline. They are:

1. Greater expenditures by both the Federal and State governments for improved highways and freeways—financed by higher taxes on every gallon of gas you buy.

2. The Suez Canal crisis and Middle East unrest—foreshadowing demands on American oil to fill Western European needs.

3. The constantly increasing horsepower of automobile motors—requiring gasoline with higher and higher octane content.

The great, pocket-book importance of Proposition 4 to motorists is that it will provide an important counter-pressure to these rising price trends—by greatly increasing the supply of low-cost California crude oil.

TODAY, CALIFORNIA IS AN "OIL DEFICIT" STATE—we use more oil and gasoline than we produce.

Yet, today, only half the oil that can be recovered is being recovered—the other half remains in the ground, tragically wasted, for want of proper Oil Conservation procedures.

Proposition 4 provides the legal framework to make it possible to recover that presently wasted half of our producible oil resources. It will replace scarcity with plenty—adding a whopping 4 billion barrels to our known, recoverable oil reserves.

Best of all, the additional oil that will be produced from existing fields will be relatively inexpensive oil—because huge discovery, drilling and investment costs are not needed to produce it.

By providing a new, important source of low-cost California crude oil, Proposition 4 will help keep gasoline prices down!

● THESE COMPANIES SERVE THE MOTORIST: The major, integrated oil companies (with only one exception) — the companies that not only produce oil, but refine it and distribute it to the public—support Proposition 4. Their interest is in volume production and distribution of gasoline at reasonable prices.

Have you read "The Case of California's Disappearing Oil"? Ask for it at your service station or news stand.

● THESE COMPANIES DO NOT SERVE THE MOTORIST: On the other hand, the interest of the large-scale, multi-million dollar "independents" who are opposed to Proposition 4 is in higher prices. They are simply producers of crude oil and do not serve the motoring public. They are currently agitating for higher prices for crude oil.

● THE MOTORIST'S INTEREST, THE PUBLIC INTEREST, YOUR INTEREST — CLEARLY IS IN BOOSTING SUPPLIES OF LOW-COST CALIFORNIA OIL, AND KEEPING GASOLINE PRICES DOWN, BY ENACTMENT OF PROPOSITION 4.

Vote YES on Proposition 4

"If ever a measure for public decision by ballot could be called a motorists' measure, it is Proposition 4."—The Kingsburg Recorder.

"ANASTASIA," popular play by Marcell Maurette, with international intrigue as its theme, will be presented by the Dramateurs at 8:30 tonight, tomorrow night and Friday and Saturday nights of next week at Berkeley Little Theater. Left to right are Eddie Woltz as Prince Bounine, Jewel Scheeline as Baroness Livenbaum and Patricia Winkworth as the Dowager Empress.

Scouts to Enjoy Pot Luck, See Officers Installed

Adult members of the Boy Scouts of America in Meridian District of Mt. Diablo Council will hold their annual pot-luck dinner and installation of officers for 957 at the San Ramon High School, Danville, at 7:15 p.m. next Friday, according to Duncan Knudsen, of Lafayette, district chairman.

The date has been changed from that previously announced, because of a conference of lay Scouters of Region 12, being held at San Mateo on the following day, Knudsen explained.

Each of the 60 sponsoring institutions in the areas of Orinda, Lafayette, Walnut Creek, Danville, Alamo, and Pleasant Hill, is invited to send representatives and their partners to the event. This includes, also, members of the District Committee, all members-at-large, and the Commissioner Staff of Meridian District. Committeemen of the 98 Cub Packs, Boy Scout Troops, and Explorer Units are invited to attend, as well as the Cubmasters, Den Mothers, Scoutmasters, Explorer Advisors, their assistants and partners.

General chairman of a committee in charge of the dinner is G. H. Macey of Pleasant Hill, who was district chairman in 1955. He is being assisted by Joseph DeBois, of Walnut Creek; David Lercari, of Lafayette; L. A. Dodge, Walnut Creek; T. P. Wilson, Pleasant Hill; and A. E. O'Nion, Danville.

Farm Bureau Is Opposed to Transit District

A resolution opposing the formation of a Alameda-Contra Costa Transit System, to be voted upon Tuesday, was passed recently by the board of directors, Contra Costa County Farm Bureau.

It read as follows:

"The voters of Alameda County and a large portion of Contra Costa will be asked at the November 6 election to vote upon the question of whether or not a district for the creation and maintenance of a transit system shall be formed.

"The district, if formed, will have unlimited taxing powers.

"The district could result in a disjointed and unrelated hodgepodge which would give unsatisfactory service at high cost.

"It appears probable that Contra Costa County representation on the district board will be insufficient to fully protect our interests.

"The Contra Costa County Farm Bureau therefore joins other Contra Costa organizations in urging a "No" vote on this dangerous proposed transit district."

Basis for 1960 Census Changed

Cities and elementary school districts will probably be used in computation of the 1960 census, Robert Van Noord, assistant county administrator, has indicated.

He said that city managers generally have agreed to abandon use of the old township boundaries for the census, since they have little meaning for the average person.

Cat Fanciers Awaiting Big Day at Armory

Cat fanciers are combing and currying their show cats for Contra Costa County's first Cat Show to be held November 10 and 11 in the Walnut Creek Armory.

And the languidly lovely Persians . . . elegant Siamese . . . unusual no-tail Manx . . . and other thorobred cats are enjoying all sorts of extra tid-bits these days to bring them to their peak of beauty for the big two-day exhibition.

The show is sponsored by the Mt. Diablo Cat Club. Carl Hamilton is chairman. Mrs. Doris Cook of Pleasant Hill is in charge of publicity.

In addition to the big Cat Show within the Walnut Creek Armory, there will be a special attraction for children—a Children's Pet Cat Show at 2 p.m., November 11, in the parking lot adjoining the Armory.

Engineers Plan New Chapter in Central County

A new chapter of the California Society of Professional Engineers will be organized in the central county area, Leroy Martin, chairman of the chapter extension committee, announced today.

A dinner meeting will be held Thursday at 7:30 p.m., at the Monument Bowl, where information about the new group will be given.

All registered engineers in the area may attend, said Martin. The dinner will cost $2.50, with tickets at the door. Tips and tax is included.

Should this group be successfully organized, it will replace the East Bay Chapter in the central county, he added.

Some of the proponents of the new group are as follows: Larry Osborne, Douglas Carlson, Joe Castelan, Paul Kilkenny, Larry Milnes, Victor Sauer and Chester Smith.

The chapter will meet once a month.

It seeks members from Walnut Creek, Pleasant Hill, Orinda and Lafayette.

Reservists Will Hear Talk on New 'Missiles'

Air Force and Navy reservists will be guests of Marine Corps reserves at Walnut Creek Monday when Army Lt. Col. Dudley B. Selden discusses "Fundamentals of Guided Missles."

The lecture, arranged by the Marine unit, will be held at 8 p.m. at their regular Monday night meeting place — the Air Force Reserve training center, 2040 Mt. Diablo Blvd., Walnut Creek. This is the headquarters for Lt. Col. William E. Winslow's 9441st Air Reserve Squadron.

Tax Association Key Men Picked For New Efforts

President Bruce S. Howard of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers' Association today announced appointment of chairmen to the Association's five permanent committees. Chairman of the Finance and Membership Committee is Treasurer A. H. Johnston of Crockett.

This committee is responsible for all matters relating to the anual budget of the CCCTA and to prepare and execute the annual fund raising drive for the treasury of the CCCTA.

Chairman of the Education Committee is former school trustee Frank Cayting. This committee has the responsibility of making studies and recommendations on all matters relating to the school districts in Contra Costa County.

Chairman of the Public Works and Planning Committee is N. C. Ross, chief engineer of Dow Chemical Co. of Pittsburg. His committee will have the responsibility of studying and making recommendations on all aspects of capital improvement planning.

Chairman of the Public Expenditure Committee will continue to be V. A. Fink, superintendent of the General Chemical Plant at Nichols. This committee is assigned the study of those matters relating to budget procedure and public finance.

A new committee on Governmental Efficiency and Organization will be headed by W. C. Hanson of Concord, treasury manager of Shell Chemical Co. The full activities of this committee have not been clearly designated yet.

Howard noted that the new committee organization had been arrived at only after considerable study of similar civic groups throughout the nation, and that with streamlined organization the tax group will be enabled to make more intensive studies into a wider area of public affairs problems.

Cable TV Not Subject to PUC

The Television Transmission Inc., of Martinez, which "pipes" television to Martinez and Lafayette residents where antennas are inadequate, won a victory in the State Supreme Court, recently.

The court ruled that it is not a public utility, and so its rates and procedures are not subject to regulation by the State Public Utility Commission.

The commission earlier ruled that the company is a telephone corporation, after complaints concerning service were received from Arlene Gardens customers, who pay for the use of a "master antenna" cable to their homes.

Owner of the company is William Gentry.

Park Group Plans Drive For New County Sites

Next year's program of the Contra Costa Park and Recreation Council will emphasize county acquisition of more large area park sites, President-elect Edward Clay stated at the Council's annual dinner October 25, at Chubby Humble's in Clayton.

Alvin A. Burton, outgoing president and now vice president, reviewed the several accomplishments by the County toward development of a County park system since the Park Council began its work five years ago.

WILLIAM PENN MOTT, guest speaker and director of the City of Oakland's Park and Recreation Department, told the Park Council that they had much to be proud of but that their work is just beginning. He suggested they get local industries to support the county park developments.

New officers elected at the meeting were Edward Clay, president; Alvin A. Burton, vice president; Mrs. Pearl Grimes, secretary, and Edward Koskinen, treasurer.

Now that the Board of Supervisors is negotiating to buy the Briones area, the Park Council will work strenuously for county acquisition of the promising Cowell and Hercules sites, Clay said. The Council will also promote the development into county or state parks of other areas such as San Pablo Reservoir, Canyon, Las Trampas-Bolinger Canyons, and some harbors for small boats, he said.

ALVIN BURTON, frequently referred to as "Mr. Parks" during his five-year period of intense activity as head of the Park Council, will continue with the group in a less active way as vice president.

He noted in his remarks that among the significant steps taken by the county toward establishing a park system have been the formation two years ago of an official County Park Commission, appropriation of county money for park land acquisition, and the negotiations for county purchase of the 1400-acre Briones area, now under way.

FIRST CAR DEALER

The first automobile dealer is believed to have been a Mankato, Minn., photographer, according to the California State Automobile Association. He handled the Winton in 1900.

VOTE FOR WALLACE

Fact No. 1 The man . . .
What kind of a man do we want to represent us in this important office? A politician? An opportunist? Or a respected and experienced statesman?
In Wallace, we have a man with proven administrative ability. At 59, he is a vigorous energetic executive, who has spent the greater part of his life making important decisions.

Fact No. 2 The Candidate . . .
Wallace is no politician. He never will be. At no time during the campaign has Wallace ever compromised his own personal dignity and integrity. Remember Wallace did not seek this office — he was sought out by the Citizens Committee for Better Government (a committee comprised of 200 civic leaders in District 2).

Fact No. 3 The Office . . .
Wallace has no business interests to divide his time or influence his actions. He is not beholden to any man or group. He is free to act in the best interests of all the people.
